Mêats—Other Quotations.

Although not as large as last week, there was a very good turnout on the local gnarket_Libin morning, and a very lors sk sale.

There was quite a supply of poultry effered, and it brought very good prices. Turkeys sold generally at like per lib, and some sales were reported at lic. Even at these prices sales were very brisk, as people are beginning to realize that there is every likelihood of there being a very strong advance in price-before Christmas. Turkeys sold generally at leading to 132 courside. Buckwheat—No. 2, 53c; No. 4, 53c; No. 3, 53c; No. 4, 53c; No. 4

Potatoes Pientiful. There was a very large market of vegetables. Potatoes were again offered in Bell Telephone very large quantities, but had only a moderate sale. The market has been glutted lately with the supply, as there has hardly been a market day when there has been been a market day when city Dairy, pref. has hardly been a market day when there hasn't been from 20 to 50 loads ofthere hasn't been from 20 to 50 loads offered. Naturally the prices are not very strong. The majority sold at 50c, while some single bags brought 60c.
Of other vegetables, cabbag's were very much in evidence, and like all other treen vegetables had a very good sale.
They sold from 30c to 40c to dozen. Celery and cauliflowers were also offered in some quantities.
