ES JUMP INTO LEAD

Partie Runs His Victory String Up Another Notch in Tectic 4-2 Encounter, Marking Return of Champs.

HERMAN SCHWARTZ pulled the climbing, puffing Aces up on the first rung of the Mint ladder yesterday afternoon at Tecumseh Park, with a 4-2 victory, the Hams' hold having slipped in the morning when they lost to the Wolves. This was Herman's fourteenth victory of the present season, and when he's patting himself on the back he ought to pass a few around the Aces' camp and finally a few around the Mint League's as well.

Boyle Doubled. The Aces were given the first run on Robertson's single. Boyle doubled, and the Aces' error which cashed in, in first place on Kirby's single. Singles by Miller and Robertson produced the 4-2. Boyle's double in the 5th pretty nearly did a hole in the fence, but he was out. # LEONARD FAILS IN QUEST AS WELTER

Referee Claims Benny's Blow in Thirteenth Foul.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Jack Britton, world's welterweight boxing champion, successfully defended his title against Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, Referee Patsy Haley claiming that Leonard hit Britton while the latter was on one knee in the thirteenth round of their scheduled fifteen-round match tonight. After one minute and 42 seconds of fighting in the thirteenth round Britton suddenly went down on one knee, and the Referee started counting over him. Then Leonard walked over and struck Britton with a left to the body. The referee said he had not seen a foul blow struck before Britton went down. Although Britton claimed one, Britton then sat in his corner unhurt.

After the fighters had left the ring the crowd surged around the ring demanding an explanation of the fighters' tactics in connection with the foul. Britton was on one knee, and was deliberately struck by Leonard, who then walked to his corner, claiming that he had struck Britton fairly. The referee said, however, that he thought the blow was unintentional. The contest was interesting at all stages, with both men appearing to be fighting their best. Despite the 27 years, Britton displayed no end of activity, and when called upon brought all of his famed ring generalship to bear against his opponent.
