Catholic citizens of Winnipeg consider even to the latter.

You know perfectly well that I am with you in your determination to exercise perpetual vigilance as to threatened encroachments of the Church of Rome on our civil or religious freedom. I am all the more sorry that you should waste your ammunition on one who is not an enemy, and who simply followed the detates of his genial heart in bringing together around his hospitable board Protestant and Roman Catholic clergy and laymen on an occasion which was one-of considerable interest to the R.C. Church. Let us fight real foes; let us not set up men of straw if order to have the satisfaction of knocking them down. Yours truly,

D. J. MACDONNELL.

Reasonable and Reautiful Winter Fabrica.

Now that the winter is rapidly approaching provident households are taking time by the forelock and getting thoroughly equipped to battle with the wintry blasts. Not only are substantial goods in request but all persons of taste desire to have beautiful and even picturesque costumes. A capital place to patronium, where the latest and best styles are to be seen in profusion, at terms as reasonable as seen in profusion, at terms as reasonable as any in Toronto, is Messrs. John Catto & Co.'s large emporium, King street east, Here are to be seen many novelties, among them being wool tartan dress goods, which are always fashionable. This firm is the only one which offers a complete line of these goods. Amongst the prettiest of these fabrics are the Maclean, Macnab, Maopherson, Fraser, Forbes and Macintosh. Catto & Co. have also just imported a large quantity of splendid shawls, substantial, and of every description. The stock of quilts, blankets and every article for winter wear is most extensive and will well sepay a visit by intending purchasers.

Big Brives at Petleys'.

Petley & Petley are bound to do a big susiness this season. They have a big stock ausiness this season. They have a big stock on hand, and have made up their minds to sell it off at low prices in order to get rid of it. All new goods, too; no old stock from last season. Mantles, latest styles, English, American and Parisian, perfect beauties, at prices away down. Carpets, first-class, all kinds, retail at wholesale prices. Clothing, ready made and to order, the best and cheapest made. For dry goods of any kind you cannot do better than stroll through Petleys. You will find in their different departments the best and cheapest stock of dry goods and slothing in Toronto.

Miss Farrell, the Lucky One.

Miss Sarah Farrell, No. 76 Strachan avenue, is the possessor of a beautiful seven octave, plano-cased organ, being the first of the kind ever manufactured. It was made by the Uxbridge Organ Company and was a special feature in the musical department at the late Industrial Exhibition. It was purchased from H. G. McDowell, the representative of Wm. M. Baird & Co. Call and see him.

They who told you that Gibson had left the city grossly deceived you. GRAVENHURST, Oct. 19th, 1887.

Messrs, J. &. J. Taylor, Toronto.

Dear Sirs.—I wish to add my testimony to the merits of your safes. Mine was a No. 8 key look safe, of your make. It passed through our great fire and its contents were well preserved, and the look worked quite satisfactorily after the fire. I have just given your agent. Mr. Herrick, an order for another one of the same size, but with combination leek, which you will please forward as soon as possible.

Yours truly, H. R. King.

GRAVENHURST, Oct. 20th, 1887.

We, the undersigned, having carefully examined the double tongued and grooved as well as the non-conducting fianged door of the J. & J. Taylor safe that has inst arrived from that firm for ow townsman, W. A. McKim, are decidedly of the opinion that it is far superior in its fire-resisting qualities to the cast from flanged door.
