Cable advice received to-day by John S. Fisher says: "The second series of auctions of colonial wools for 1891 opened in London to-day with an average attendance of buyers, fair competition on basis of last auction's closing rates." THIS EVENING TO-MORROW APRIL 6, 7 and 8—E. H. SOTHERN.

JACOBS & SPARROW'S OPERA The latest comedy craze,

The following despatch was received by John J. Dickson & Co. over their private wire fram Counselman & Day of Chicago. Wheat has ruled rather quiet to-day though at somewhat higher level of values. Receipts were only moderate, but stronger cables started market at an advance, which the good clearances also tended to increase somewhat, but this advance was lost on pretty heavy selling; and market turned rather soft. Later, tone improved on reported working of 185,000 bush, wheat here for all rail shipment to seaboard, and one report sale of 10,000 sacks patent flour at Minneapolis for export, at 32s 6d. The strength caused by this drove bulk of scattering shorts, and feeling continued firm to the close. Decrease of outside buying is not a very bullish feature, for the last two or three days character of news has been sifficiently bullish to cause sharp advance, but seems to have failed woefully of that effect. Corn was firmer but trade was very quiet. Until the bullish tone in wheat developed there was a slight shrinkage in values. Provisions were easier early. Local crowd sold them off, but did not succeed in forcing out any great number of holdings, and market gradually recovered, closing firm. Shipping demand for hogs is very active.
