like to see him try to stop another." Thus from the grandstand cried the 10-year-old son of Mr. Justice Street yesterday, with his bright eyes fixed intently on the globular form of C. W. Postlethwaite, when the learned judge, with bat in hand, was defending his wickets from the destructive onslaught of Dr. Baines and Gus Foy. His paps banged the ball again to mid-on, and the bright hoy chuckled with delight, as did the Fifth race, 3 to 1.2; Mile—Soho, 11 to 5, won; Madstone, 8 to 5, 2; St. James, 10 to 1, 3. Time 1.53.

Second race, 1400 yards—Westchester, 6 to 1, won; Woodcutter, 3 to 1, 2; Judge Post, 8 to 1, 3. Time 1.20%.

Third race, 14 mile—Eon, 6 to 5, won; Riley, 4 to 5, 2; SanJuan, 10 to 1, 3. Time 1.53.

Fourth race, 3 mile—Soho, 11 to 5, won; banged the ball again to mid-on, and the bright boy chuckled with delight, as did the little girls, the maidens, the older girls and in fact every one on the Bloor-street grounds, for it was truly picturesque to see the ponderous form of the valiant yachtsman caper on the cricket greates after the little harmless but eluding crease after the little harmless but eluding leather.

The match started in the morning with the Hittites at bat. Dr. Baines hit out like a true hitter. He was simply impenetrable and hitter. He was simply impenetrable and hitter. carried out his willow with a valuable half Little Addie, 8 to 1, 2; Eleve, 20 to 1, 3. Time

Fines, according to rules, were of frequent occurrence. Of course all who rolled up ducks were muleted in sodas. Mr. Ogden suffered for muffing at the wickets and also for chinning the umpire, and J. R. Strathy for permitting a daisy cutter to pass between his legs. These were "salted" for square muffs: Messrs. Postlethwaite, Osler, Baines, Sproule, W. Jennings, Beardmore, Boulton, Dr. Wright, B. Jennings, Tilley.

All the afternoon a string of carriages filed in and out of the Bloor-street gate, halting under the spreading elms of the field. The scene was an animated one indeed. The youth and beauty of Toronto were there, and right royally did they enjoy themselves. The ladies looked over their ice cream dishes and watched the Doctor taking stumps or the Judge lifting fours to the fence.

Truly it was a great and jolly day for the old chaps. Even the grand stand that fell didn't hurt anybody. It seemed to be imbed too with good nature.

Dr. Allan Baines also distinguished himself when the Hivites were hitting. His slow break was very deadly and left many a wreck in its wake. However, C. H. Sproule and Mr. Justice Street pocketed 25 between them in rare style.

Lyndhurst Ogden and Mr. Plummer were the heroes of the Hittite second. Each made 31 by sterling acricket. With the score well up to a century the inning was closed. Palmer and Skerritt Disappointed at Duf-The postponed bicycle races at Dufferin Park failed to come off last night. A report had been circulated to the effect that the track was not in a fit condition for the wheelmen. This deterred some of the riders from going up, but those who did go averred that the track was all right.

Had the races come off they would have most certainly been very closely contested, for in addition to the Toronto cracks, Palmer and Skerritt of Hamilton were present with their 27-pound pneumatics, geared away up to the skies.

the expectations of visitors to such a degree as the wonderful performances of Ray Burton and Signor Bondo.

The Wizard of the Wire, as the former is called, went through a series of brilliant and startling mancuvers last evening in the presence of fully 6000 spectators. A stiff breeze was blowing at the time, and interfered to a great extent with the exhibition. On this account Mr. Burton was compelled to exclude one of his most novel and delicate feats, consisting of balancing a small tree, some four feet in height, on his forehead while standing on a loose rops. The tree has oranges hanging from it, and these the performer shoots off with a pistol. On the first calm day Mr. Burton may be expected to be seen at his best.
