Fair, Square and Above Board

Fair as the day is long-square as any unbroken promise—as open, plain and apparent as the sky above your head—what more could you ask or expect of the A-B-C Classified Section?

I it were secretive, ambiguous or misleading—you would be justified in looking upon it with doubt.

Everything about it is above board-the ads, their character and their arrangement.

You'll notice each classified offer is arranged under an alphabetical and numerical double system of convenience. This makes it just as easy as A-B-C or 1-2-3 to find the exact kind of an opportunity you are seek-ing and to secure its profits immediately. Now ask yourself if the A-B-C Classified Section

Would-Be Burglar Faces Shots

At Home of J. Vohn CHATHAM, Dec. 30 .- Five candidates for the position of chief of police of this city were interviewed by the police commissioners this afternoon. The sixth applicant will be interviewed tomorrow morning, after which it is expected the appointment will be made. Chief Groves, who has been a member of the local police force for more than 30 years, tendered his resignation several weeks ago. SLIGHTLY ABOVE ESTIMATE. The cost of remodeling the Hotel Sanita for vocational school purposes was $15,173.57, according to a statement prepared by Walter Watts, treasurer of the building committee in charge of the work. The cost of the site was $35,000, and it was estimated the remodeling could be completed with the balance of the $50,000 debenture issue plus the amount of money received from the sale of the fixtures. The total cost of the site and remodeled building was $50,173.57. GIVEN WARM RECEPTION.

A would-be burglar was given a warm reception at the home of J. Vohn, 172 William street, last night. The prowler, a colored man, gained entrance through a window about 1.30 a.m., but beat a hasty retreat through the same window when he was surprised with shots from a revolver in the hands of Mr. Vohn. The police have certain clues which they are confident will lead to the man's arrest within a few days. JOINT INSTALLATION.

The officers of Wellington and Victory Masonic lodges were installed at a joint meeting of the two organizations sisted in the impressive ceremonies by C. E. Clements, G. Gray, J. A. McCallum, T. Ferguson, N. Smith, J. H. Sullivan G Willard.
