DEERING MOWERS, The King of Mowers.

Everybody talks Deering. Deering this and Deering that, this is like the Deering and this is as good as the Deering, and it's Deering, Deering all the time. It must be a good machine when it is so much talked about. And the man that buys an imitation when he can get the genuine will live and learn and pay for his experience.

JUNE WEDDINGS.

Fitzgerald-Young.

The residence of Mrs. Merry, Ontario St., Watford, was the scene of a pretty home wedding, on Tuesday morning, when her niece Miss Jennie Young, one of Watford's popular and estimable young ladies, was united in marriage to Mr. W. E. Fitzgerald, Barrister. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Haddock, M. A., in the presence of a few of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The bride was attended by Miss Annie Ray, with May Armitage as maid of honor. Mr. John White supported the groom. After a well appointed wedding breakfast had been served the happy couple took the noon express for the east, and will visit Chicago, Kansas City, and other points before taking up housekeeping at their comfortable home on St. Clair St., where they will be at home to their friends after August 17th. Many friends join in wishing the happy young couple much happiness.

Chambers-Parker.

The Aylmer Sun, of June 24th, contains the following announcement: A quiet but pretty wedding was celebrated on the 16th of June at the residence of Mrs. George Parker, Dunboyn, when her youngest daughter, Elva A., was united in marriage to Mr. Albert Chambers, a prosperous young farmer near Watford. The bride was tastefully dressed in a suit of cream brocade and carried a beautiful bouquet of bridal roses. She was attended by her niece, Miss Violet Parker, of Yarmouth, who was becomingly attired in pink cashmere. The groom was supported by Mr. U. M. Buchner, barrister, of London. At 12.30 p.m. the bridal party entered the room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother Byron, as the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march were played by Mr. N. Campbell, of Aylmer. Miss Cecil Parker, of Sparta, acted as flower girl and looked handsome in a suit of pale blue. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers, the bride's party standing in an arbor fern and snowballs. After the impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. C. Critchton, the company consisting of 25 immediate relatives adjourned to the dining room where a tempting repast was partaken of. The happy couple drove to St. Thomas to take the train for points west. The presents were costly and beautiful and showed to what extent the bride was loved by her friends.

Jackson-Barnett.

A true jubilee wedding has been consummated in Sarnia. On Tuesday afternoon, in the presence of a few invited guests, Miss Jennie Barnett and Mr. Edward Jackson, of Port Huron, were quietly married at the residence of the bride's parents, Emeric street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Thompson assisted by Rev. Geo. Cuthbertson, of Wyoming, while Miss Bessie Barnett, sister of the bride, and Mr. Sovereign, of Port Huron, assisted the bride and groom. After partaking of the wedding dejeuner, the newly married couple left on the Monarch for a wedding trip on the great lakes carrying with them the best wishes of a host of friends in Sarnia and Port Huron. The wedding gifts were numerous and beautiful.

Miller-Pannell.

On Tuesday afternoon, June 22nd, at 4 o'clock, the marriage of Miss Ethel Pannell, of Adelaide, to Prof. Miller, of Thessalon, took place at the family residence, Victoria street, Strathroy, in the presence of upwards of fifty invited guests. The bride was gowned in pale cream with Nile green and lace trimmings and carried a bouquet of cream roses during the ceremony. The presents tendered to her constituted a beautiful testimony of the esteem of many friends. In the evening the bridal party left for Toronto, where they will spend their honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will make their home in Thessalon, where the groom possesses a high standing in the community, both as a mine-owner, proprietor of a leading drug store and professor of minerals.

Moore-Trick.

A pleasant event took place at the Parsonage, Forest, on Wednesday afternoon of last week, when Miss Milly Trick, daughter of Wm. Trick, and James Moore, both of Bosanquet, were joined in the bonds of wedlock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. Whiting, B. A. The bride-maid was Miss Dorothy Moore, sister of the bridegroom, and Thos. Trick, brother of the bride, performed the duties of groomsmen. The bride had lived in Forest for nearly two years, and had many warm friends here, who join in wishing her much joy. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will reside on the 10th con., Bosanquet.

Mathews-Davis.

The residence of Mr. Jehu Davis, Sarnia, was the scene of a quiet wedding Thursday afternoon when his youngest daughter Edythe became the wife of Mr. A. A. Mathews, formerly of Sarnia. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. R. Davis, in the presence of the family and was conducted with the utmost simplicity. After the ceremony a dainty supper was served after which the happy couple left on the 5.55 train for a short trip to eastern points.

Kemp-Balls.

Mr. Charlie Kemp, the well-known Petrolia, fireman, was married Wednesday afternoon to Miss Olivia, daughter of Mr. A. W. Balls, of the same town. Rev. A. Fitzpatrick, B.A., performed the ceremony in the Presbyterian church, and the newly married pair will spend their wedding trip in different points in Michigan.

Callahan-Welch.

At the Watford R. C. Church on Wednesday morning, June 30th, Mr. Wm. Callahan, of Adelaide, and Miss Annie Welch, of St. Mary's, eldest daughter of Mr. Patrick Welch, 2nd line, Warwick, were united in marriage by the Rev. A. J. McKee, of Strathroy. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Kate Welch, and the groom by his brother. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's parents for the wedding breakfast.

HIGH SCHOOL BOARD.

Special meeting of High School Board held June 23rd. Present—Dr. McLeay, T. Kerfoot, T. Goodhand, Dr. Newell and W. Hindson. Previous minutes read and adopted.

T. Goodhand reported that he did not think the fees could be collected from G. Early, as he claimed to be living with his uncle in the county of Lambton.

Communication read from Miss M. E. Reid requesting that her salary be raised from $400 to $500 for ensuing year.

Moved by T. Goodhand, seconded by Dr. Newell, that Miss Reid be re-engaged at a salary of $450.—Carried.

Moved by T. Goodhand, seconded by W. Hindson, that the teachers be paid balance of salaries: C. Potter $120; W. B. Race, $70; H. Conn, $80; Miss Reid, $40; and J. A. Hume, Janitor, $15.—Carried.

Moved by T. Goodhand, seconded by T. Kerfoot, that we ask the council for $350 to meet current expenses.—Carried.

Moved by T. Kerfoot, seconded by W. Hindson, that we re-engage H. Conn at former salary, $600, and that the Secretary communicate with him.—Carried.

W. McLEAY, Secretary.

ARKONA.

Miss Ada Hooper is visiting friends in Lambeth.

Penies to the lake will be the order of the day on July 1st.

The scholars are now enjoying their holidays.

A large number of candidates are writing at the entrance exams here.

Who will get the Theford mail route is now a subject for speculation.

About fifteen of the Masonic fraternity from town attended church service at Theford last Sunday.

Herb Morningstar lost another finger the other day while working at Morningstar's mill. He lost two some time ago while working a stove jointer.

The strawberry harvest is in full blast, and a large number of pickers are engaged. The berries are a good crop but prices are low.

A bicycle parade from Arkona and surrounding places will be a feature in the Public Library concert here on July 9th, and all lovers of the wheel will confer a favor by attending with decorated and illuminated wheels.

The directors of the Arkona Public Library will give a garden party on the evening of July 9th, which promises to be the treat of the season. Those in charge of the affair are sparing no pains in procuring foreign and local talent for the musical and literary program, in addition to which berries and ice-cream will be served in abundance.

COUNCIL MINUTES.

Council met at call of Reeve on June 18th. Members all present, the Reeve in the chair. Minutes of last meeting read and adopted.

Meadows, Jaynes—That John White be paid $7.50 for drawing three cords stone, and that an order be granted for same.—Carried.

Bell, Jaynes—That the accounts of John Archer and Sylvester Smith for drawing stone, $3.75 each, be passed and an order drawn for same.—Carried.

Bell, Russell—That Messrs. Jaynes, McAlpine and Meadows be a committee to purchase timber for bridges, and that they be allowed a reasonable price for the time spent.—Carried.

McAlpine, Meadows—That the Clerk be instructed to put up notices calling for tenders to build the abutments required to be built under bridges. Plans and specifications to be drawn out by W. S. Davidson, C. E.—Carried.

Adjourned to meet at call of Reeve.

Mr. D. Jury preached in the Methodist Church Sunday, our new minister not having arrived.

Still the wedding bells ring. Mr. J. Trotter, of this place, was married to Miss Mary Chambers, of the 2nd line south, on Monday. We extend to Mr. and Mrs. Trotter our best wishes. Rumor has it that the bells will ring again next week.

Our ball tossers went over to the 2nd line last Saturday and walloped the northern boys badly. The score standing 29 to 6 runs. W. Lankford umpired the game in a very impartial manner. The rain Tuesday prevented the Mullins of the 2nd playing a return match with our local giants.

An Orderly Multitude.

London, June 23.—The perfection of the police arrangements today was wonderful. Not a baton, not a pistol, not a weapon of any kind was in the possession of any policeman on foot today.

The vast crowds were perfectly orderly and good-natured, as were the police themselves.

Capt. G. H. Dean, premier chief of the constable police, said to the correspondent that he had never dealt with a more orderly multitude. Not a case of disorderly conduct or drunkenness was reported to him.

Wm. D. Barton, of Tamworth, an old and respected farmer, died Monday morning after a short illness, aged 77 years.
