On the score of financial help, I have received no offer since last writing, ex-cept from a Halifax gentleman who has no connection with the county whatever; noth-ing from anyone belonging to the county, except Hon. Mr. Longley. There will be three illustrations in the book and five or six half-tone portraits of those whom I have selected as the most eminent men whom the county has produced, and whose portraits are available. Although the book will contain 650 pages of long pri-mer type, I have room for a few more por-traits, from any parties who may wish to perpetuate in this way the likeness of de-parted friends, or living persons who have been or are prominent in public life, as Clergymen, Lawyers, Doctors, Justices of the Peace, Members of the Legislature, etc. One gentleman, the son of a deceased clergy-man, has asked me the privilege of inserting a portrait of his father provided he paid the softer to others. The expense would be about $10 or $12 each. Those who wish to avail themselves of this opportunity, will kindly to zo me. A manobis Erozal New Hest.

The "Old Folks Concert" held here on the eve of Thanksgiving was not very largely patronized, owing no doubt to inclemency of weather. The sum of $15.66 was realized.

It is said Maggie tells a startling story of the tragedy on that September night, which lett her an orphan and robbed her of one of her brothers, but the crown will divulge nothing, in fact they deny the truth of the reports in circulation. A Man With a Record. No man in New Brunswick can claim the honor of starting so many young men on suc-cessful careers as can the principal of the St. John Business College. He has been en-gaged since 1871 in the good work he is still pursuing with so much energy and success. Almost every clerical position here, worth having, is held by his graduates, not to men-tion not only those throughout the maritime provinces, but throughout Canada and the United States, who attribute their success to the training received from Mr. Karr and his assistants. Mr. Kerr has a record of 25 years of honorable dealing in St. John, and The Telegraph takes pleasure in commending him and his methods. — Telegraph.

A Cuban Victory. NEW YORK, Nov. 30. — Delegate Palma, of the Cuban junts, has received a letter which confirms the report that General Garcia has taken Gualmaro. The letter asys that not only did Garcia's army capture the town, but enough arms and ammunition to fit out 400 recruits. In the battle 180 Span-iards were taken prisoners. The arms and ammunition captured were 124,000 cartrid-ges, 300 Manser rifles, 160 Remington rifles and two field pieces. This confirmation has caused the Cubans here to rejoice, as Gual-maro is the most important interior town thus far taken by the Cubans and has been considered a Spanish stronghold.

HAVANA, Nov. 27.—General Weyler's re-turn to the province of Pinar del Rio is for the purpose of renewing the campaign against the insurgent forces of Maceo in that pro-vince, which begun under his personal com-mand a fortnight ago. It is understood here it is the intention of the captain-general to pursue a policy of unceasing activity against the rebels to the end of completely breaking up Maceo's army before returning to Havana.

They have no hesitation in as-serting that were such a company as they propose in operation, it would save yearly to the fruit growers not much less than $100,000. First, by doing away with middle-men and outsiders' charges and profits; sec-ond, by lower rates of freight; third, by securing reduced commissions and other charges in England; and fourth, by the higher price obtained by having the apples shipped at proper times, in well ventilated stramers, and sold by two or three reputable forms, the accredited agents of the company. As the business is now carried on, each from the time the producer puts them on board the cass until they reach the consumer, charges whatever he chooses, with the result that in several cases this year the producer passer of naving the apples, but has been paled on to pay for the pleasure of having them ascrificed. The individual shipper is powerless to remedy this, but by combination, and through the medium of a Joint Stock Company the tables can be turned and the producer placed in an independent position. The scheme proposed is as follows: 1 The formation of a Joint Stock Company with the object of encouraging the producer to ship and market his own apples; and hav-ing for its shareholders, principally, the farmers and fruit growers of the Cornwallis and Annapolis Valleys. 2 By combination and co-operation to se-cure the control of as large a portion of the apple crop for shipment as possible. 3 The erection of warehouses at large shipping stations for the receiving, storing, assorting and shipping of apples. 4 The judicious regulation by one central authority of shipments in accordance with the state of the markets, and the providing of suitable and well ventilated steamers for the carrying of apples.

No power on earth is so strong to build up a town as a newspaper well patronized, and that power should be appreciated."
