SILK FACTORY FOR CANADA

Large Manufacturing Firm to Establish Business in Canada.

Ottawa.—Advice has been received by the Commercial Intelligence Service of the Department of Trade and Commerce that as a result of tariff changes in the last budget, Courtauld Limited, one of the largest manufacturers of artificial silk in the world, contemplate the immediate establishment in Canada of a factory sufficiently large to supply the whole Canadian market, and that Mr. H. Johnson, the managing director of the company, is leaving at once for Canada to select a site and arrange for the erection of a plant. As for the past number of years Canada has imported approximately annually two million dollars' worth of artificial silk, the establishment of this new industry, will likely to decrease imports, will on the other hand furnish home employment to that extent.

CLOUDS WITH SILVER LINING

There's never a day so sunny But a little cloud appears; There's never a life so happy But has had its time of tears; Yet the sun shines out the brighter When the stormy tempest clears.

There's never a garden growing With roses in every plot; There's never a heart so hardened But has one tender spot; We need only pursue the border To find the forget-me-not.

There's never a cup so pleasant But that has bitter with the sweet; There's never a path so rugged That fears not the print of feet; And we have a helper promised For the trials we may meet.

There's never a sun that rises But we know 'twill set at night; The tints that gleam in the morning At evening are just as bright; And the hour that is the sweetest Is between the dark and light.

UNIQUE CEREMONY AT ANNAPOLIS

A quiet and impressive ceremony took place at St. Thomas' Church on Sunday evening, June 24th, when thirty-three Indians of the Micmac tribe celebrated the anniversary of the first baptism in Church, that of the old Chief Memberton. (A tablet commemorating this event, which took place at Port Royal on St. John the Baptist's Day, 1610, was formally unveiled at this church on June 24th, 1915). After the Way of the Cross had been recited by Rev. Monsignor Grace, the Indians came slowly from the vestry, each carrying a lighted candle, and encircling the baptismal font, beautifully decorated with flowers, marched in solemn procession around the church, afterwards kneeling at the altar rail during the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The Chief of the tribe, Ben Picton, over ninety years old, was in the group with his children, grand-children, and a great granddaughter, who with two other little girls, carried banners. The church had been tastefully decorated with flowers by the young ladies of the parish, and numerous candles lit on the three altars. The choir rendered appropriate music, and a French hymn was sung, during the lighting of the candles, by Miss Sylvia Muisse, the Misses Josephine and Corinna Murray, and E. J. Muisse, Spectator.
