CANADIAN CHURCH PRESS OFFICE, Wednesday, June 14th, 1860.

We have had a moderate amount of business in produce during the week, at prices hardly so satisfactory to sellers. The supplies have been considerable for this season of the year, not only at this point, but at various other important stations on the railways. The enquiry for all kinds of grain continues active, but for articles for family use, the supply has been in excess of the demand, and the prices have been low, with a declining tendency.

Flour has not been much traded in during the week, the offerings being small with the farmers, on the part of holders sufficient to prevent transactions. Buyer are not anxious to operate except they can get a good bargain and run less risk than if they paid the extreme rates asked by holders. There have been no sales within the past few days of sufficient importance on which to base quotations, and the following figures must be regarded more as the rates named respectively by buyers and sellers, than a price which would either be accepted or realized. Double Extra, $6 40 to $6 75; Extra, $6 to $6 25; Fall wheat, Fancy, $5 75, and spring wheat, Fancy, $5 50; Superfine No. 1, $5 10 to $5 15, per barrel.

Wheat has been freely offered during the week, and for this season of the year the transactions have been large. The quality of the deliveries has been pretty good, except on Tuesday, when it was rather lower than usual, yet the only sample of the week is equal to that of previous weeks. There has been and still is an active competitive demand between buyers, but the depressing advices which continue to be received from abroad has checked prices, and close slightly lower than on this day week. The best grades on Tuesday realized $1 25 to $1 40, the latter in one or two cases only; while the bulk of the deliveries were got at between $1 25 to $1 35—the average price of the day not being over $1 33 per bushel. The receipts of both fall and spring wheat amounted to nearly 4000 bushels. Spring wheat sold at $1 05 to $1 12 1/2—the current outside figure being $1 10 per bushel.

Of BARLEY and RYE the offerings are limited. The former is at 50 to 55c, and the latter is nominal at 65 to 70c per bushel. Both are in demand for local use.

OATS have not been very freely offered, but the stock on hand has been more than sufficient to supply the local demand, so that rates remain steady at 31c. a 33c. per bushel.

PEAS have the enquiry continues active, and all offering have been freely bought up at 60c. a 65c per bushel.

POTATOES continue to offer freely, and are very dull at 17c. a 20c. per bushel. Other vegetables are in the market in moderate quantities.

Hay is very dull at $9 a $12 per ton. Grass is selling freely at five cents per bundle. Straw, buttern, fresh, continues in large supply, and rates are lower; several primo lots on Tuesday selling at 12c. a 12c. per lb. Tubs is also dull at 1 2c. a 10c. for No. 1, and 8c. for No. 2, per lb.

Eggs are plentiful, and are freely from 5c. a 9c. per 1 doz. a slight increase in the supply only is necessary to depress the price. Poultry is scarce at 40c. a 50c per pair for chickens.

An active trade is being done in wool, of which the supply is increasing. The best samples of washed found ready sale at 26c. a 27 1/2c per lb, but the ordinary price is not above 26 1/2c.
