The Reliable Spring Lever Poultry Punch.

If you keep a record of your chickens of the different breeds, hatches, strains, etc., there is no better, quicker, easier way than by using the Reliable Poultry Marker for punching the web between the toes. Hundreds of private marks can be made when your chickens are hatched, and a record kept so they can flock together until matured, and be separated by their mark. The Reliable Poultry Punch is made in one size only, which can be used on any age fowls.

Price, post paid, 35c.
