Rixawoon is, in color, golden chestnut; stands 157 hands high, and weighs 1,170 lbs. He is a 164 hands high, and weight 1,170 lbs. He is a horse of graind prosence, of more style, head and tail, than any horse in the country. With his perfect, regular, machine-like action, his wonderful speed, power and substance, and his race combination, in the closest and most direct lines, of the blood of the three greatest tretting families on the turf, the Abdallahs, Bashaws, and STAIR, he is the most desirable home to breed from in Canada, and not surpassed by any trotting stallion in America. From the appearance of his colts and filles of 1874 and 1875 (his first get were dropped in 1874), they have his fine size, form and color, it is fair to inter that he is in the property of the state his constitutions of the state his constitution of the state his state his constitution of the state his size, form and color, it is tair to intermine the size, form and color, it is tair to intermine the size of the size of size of syle, speed and distances, the great qualities of style, speed and distances, having won the Jorsey Derby in the size of the size

Directly descended through his site, Edward Everett, by Rysdyk's Hamblotonian (by Abdallah by Mainbrino), from imp. Mrasknorn: through his dam, by Long Island Black Hawk (by An-drew Jackson, by Young Bashaw), from imp. Arabian Grand Bashaw; and through his grand dam, by Soely's American Star (by American Star by Duroc), from imp. Diomeo, he is more closely and immediately allied to the great trotting wonders of America, with the exception of Walkhill Chief, Ajax, and Artemus, full brothers, and of Socrates and Norwood, full brothers, than anyother horse now AT THE STUD, that we know of, either in Canada or in the United States. Add to this the Royal blood of imported Margrave, deeply inbred to the great HEROD, derived through the dam of his sire, and you have a combination of the lightest and purest types that may be equalled possibly, but cannot be excelled by that of any trotting sire in the world. And BLOOD WILL TELL!
