

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

Our beloved brother Scott, of Toronto, in a communication written shortly after the "Union" meeting, says,—

"I thought you would probably be at the meeting held last Friday at Esquesing for the purpose of taking into consideration the duty of aiding the "Bible Union," but you are aware I had not the pleasure of meeting you there.—There was quite a good gathering of brethren from various churches; notwithstanding the weather being so stormy, the meeting went off most agreeably and profitably. There were two baptisms, both, I believe, intelligent persons."

MR. D. OLIPHANT: DEAR BROTHER:—I have some good news for you. After my health was restored, I visited Townsend according to your request, and the first Lord's day after I returned home, John Boucher came down to Rainham and made the good confession, and was buried in the likeness of Christ's death, to walk in a new life.—May the Lord help him so to do.

Yours in the good hope,

A. HOLMES.

RESPECTED BROTHER OLIPHANT:—I had the privilege of the Christian Banner last year by the kindness of a Christian sister, and was much edified and refreshed by it, having for 40 years proclaimed the same sentiments it publishes to the best of my ability; and you may think it was a welcome visitor as I am located—not but one disciple in Cambridge that I know of.

I have received the Jan. and Feb. numbers of the Banner this year, and would thankfully accept of the following numbers if your kindness will favour me with them, and I subscribe,

Yours in love for the truth's sake,

JAMES MURRAY.

* * Yes, brother, you will receive this paper, even without kindness on my part. The same benevolent sister has forwarded payment for you, and also for four others, being seven dollars, which she has sent to me within a few weeks—five at one time recently and two previously. This work it seems has choice friends.

BROTHER OLIPHANT: May favor and peace from God our heavenly Father rest upon you and all who love our Lord out of a pure heart in Canada West.

I have been very busily employed the winter past, spending one-half of my time in holding meetings of days. The first of December last I held a meeting at Chagrin Falls. Six persons came forward and confessed their faith in Jesus as the Christ of God, the Saviour of men. In company with our beloved brother Wm. Hayden a meet-
