McDowell's LANGSHAN AND Black MINORCA

40 Premiums at five Shows in 12 months. At the great Denver Show in January, I won 1st, second and third premiums and the sweepstakes in the Asiatic Class. I have sold birds from the River to the Coast and never failed to please. EGGS $3 per setting, two settings $5, either breed you wish. I have a specially matched Pen of Langshans that is hard to equal, from which I will sell a few at $6 per setting.

Here is a Chance for Someone!

I am going out of White Wyandottes and will sell my entire flock of 28 birds—1 Cock, 6 Hens and 22 Young Birds for $45. The Cock took third at World's Fair, Chicago, in very strong competition. The young birds are all bred from above cock, are large enough to show, and could be retailed in pairs and money doubled. Remember these are all standard birds and not sold for any fault. Also grand lot of Red Caps (I took $43 in cash on 6 entries of Red Caps at the World's Fair, Chicago); 50 young Golden Wyandottes; 30 Blue Andalusians; Black & White Javas—beauties; White Rocks, Japanese Silkies; Buff Pekin Bants; Silver Grey Dorkings; Brown Leghorns; Black Tailed Japanese Bants; Indian Games, and Black Sumatras. Agent for Mann's Bone Mills, and Simplicity Hatcher warranted to hatch.
