

CONTENTS.

POETRY.		EDITORIALS.		EDITORIALS—Continued.		EDITORIALS—Continued.
	Page.		Page.		Page.		Page.
"On the Midnight Death of Yesterday," By our Montreal Correspondent.....	11	Valedictory—Carroll Ryan.....	8	Organization of the Province of Manitoba.....	298	Movements of the Adjutant General.....	528
A Rustle on Reciprocity.....	19	Debut of the Incoming Editor.....	8	Major Wainwright.....	312	Imperial Ministry and the guarantee loan.....	569
A Soldier's Death.....	47	Notice of Lt.-Col. Brunel's New Drill Book.....	9	Earl Granville on Confederation.....	313	Sir David Wedderburne, M.P.....	570
The Yarn of the "Nancy Bell".....	92	Exciting events in Red River Territory.....	9	Brighton Baylew.....	311	6th Rifles.....	570
The Battle of Alma.....	108	Speech of Sir G. E. Cartier at Public Dinner given him at Quebec.....	10	Librarian of Parliament.....	315	Hamilton Rifle Match—A. J. J. Mason.....	570
Her Letter.....	121	A return to Prohibitive Tariff, &c.....	21	Prorogation of Parliament.....	315	Sour grapes.....	581
On the Death of Capt. H. Vickers.....	110	Politicians of the United States.....	25	Illness of the Premier.....	315	United States and Canada.....	581
Win and Wear.....	110	Discontent of Volunteers on account of smallness of Pay.....	40	Closing of Sault Ste. Marie Canal.....	320	The Franco-Prussian war.....	583
The Funeral of a General Officer.....	150	Lieutenant-governor McDougall and Red River Territory.....	41	Label on the Militia Department.....	330	Domintion Rifle Association.....	590
St. George's Flag.....	172	Records of the year 1889.....	42	Emigrants.....	330	Canada central railway.....	595
Emigration.....	188	The Fishing Trade of the Dominion and the United States.....	50	Annual Drill.....	331	Great boat race.....	601
The Canadian Dominion.....	201	Ship Canal from the St. Lawrence to the North-west Territory.....	50	American Neutrality at New York and Sault Ste. Marie.....	331	Prosperity of Canada.....	610
British Connexion.....	220	Montreal Drill Shed.....	57	Spread Englishism.....	331	Sufferers by the fires in the Ottawa valley.....	616
Irish Canada to Irish America.....	230	Registration Act, of Births, Marriages and Deaths.....	58	Stoppage of the Chitorea .....	341	Adjutant General's inspection of the Brigade camps.....	618
Canada's Battle Cry.....	232	Mo. Ross.....	58	Staff Officers.....	341	Brigade camp at Sarnia.....	618
Flowers in a Skeleton.....	238	Great Britain and the Colonies, 74, 108, 181, 235.....	58	Washington Cabinet and the Canals.....	341	Editorial Correspondence, 62, 618	620
The Soldier of Auvergne.....	251	Annexation of San Domingo.....	73	Naval Power of the States.....	345	State of the Population in England.....	345
St. Cuthbert's Burial.....	300	Aggressive policy of United States.....	73	"Jefferson Brick".....	345	Count Bismarck's circular.....	631
The Chitorea.....	310	Report of Commissioners of Public Works.....	74	Queen's Birthday.....	345	Canadian Rifle Team for Winnipeg.....	650
The two Flags.....	322	The Canal Question.....	74	American Neutrality—the Fenians again.....	346	Col. Wolsey's speech at Montreal.....	650
The last words of Anthony.....	348	Mannals—Ancient and Modern.....	80	First Action with the Fenians.....	346	Pardon of the Fenians.....	651
The Old Rose Tree.....	351	Arrest of Bell.....	80	Revolution in Portugal.....	347	Red River.....	655
O'Neill of the Cab.....	359	A Boston Insult to Prince Arthur.....	91	Great Fire at Quebec.....	347	Gen. Grant and the Fenians.....	659
Uncle Sam and his Boys.....	396	Defence of Canada—A Colonist's Letter, No. 1.....	101	Great Britain, the Colonies, and Canada.....	361	The Canadian navy.....	656
Stonewall Jackson's Way.....	412	The Colonial Question.....	105	The Fenian-American Raid.....	362	Gen. Butler on the Fisheries question.....	697
Late Fenian Raid.....	425	Neutrality as observed in U. S.....	115	Lieut. General Lindsay.....	362	The War, 635, 697, 713, 730, 710, 762, 778, 791.....	810
Defence not Defiance.....	411	The New Drill.....	109	Fire at Port William.....	362	Canadian Fortifications.....	712
Hens in Council.....	409	On the 2nd Letter of "A Colonist".....	129	Fire on the Saguenay.....	361	The surrender of Metz.....	712
Caledonia's tribute to Dickens.....	476	American Neutrality, 30, 121, 217, 332.....	121	The Times on Canada.....	376	Presentation of the sword of honor to Col. Chamberlain.....	713
Bingen.....	492	Trade with the States.....	121	The American Secretary and the British Ambassador.....	377	Changes in the Militia system.....	711
Ye Gentlemen of England.....	508	Traffic on the Erie Canal.....	121	Address to Volunteers.....	377	Russia and the Treaty of 1856.....	716
Prussian National Anthem.....	521	Opening of House of Commons.....	122	History of the Raid.....	377	Manitoba.....	716
Whose shall be the Rhine.....	510	Railway Convention.....	122	The City of Ottawa Entertains the Volunteers.....	379	Lt.-Col. Demison on Modern Cavalry.....	760
The "Marseillaise".....	526	Reply to the Times on "A Colonist's" 3rd Letter.....	146	Duty of Officers.....	382	The European crisis.....	756
My Forest Land.....	572	Withdrawal of the Troops.....	147	On the Adjutant-General's Report.....	383	The Casual Commission.....	792
At Sea.....	588	On G. W.'s Suggestions.....	157	Naval Force.....	391	Loss of the Arcton .....	792
The Lion Empire.....	601	England's Interest in Canada.....	157	Death of Charles Dickens.....	391	The President's Message.....	809
True Heroism.....	620	The Annexation Movement.....	158	Prince Arthur.....	391	Gen. O'Neill's report of the Raid.....	809
The Nameless Dead.....	636	The Canadian Army.....	152, 171	Investiture of Prince Arthur.....	391	The Press of Great Britain on the President's Message.....	820
Wounded.....	632	Yankee Neutrality.....	152	Functivism of the English Press.....	398	Reviews, 28, 67, 90, 107, 123, 158, 170, 187, 203, 218, 231, 236, 283, 299, 315, 331, 337, 363, 385, 411, 455, 482, 507, 550, 567, 586, 601, 619, 635, 651, 685, 698, 707, 731, 737.....	795
Bleeding, but not Beaten.....	668	Active Militia List.....	168	Address of Ottawa Board of Trade.....	409
The two Armies.....	681	The Political Weather-Cock.....	169	American appreciation of the Adulation of the English Press.....	409
The Worn-out Font of Type.....	700	Canadian Gunboats.....	185	Yankee Impudence.....	410
The Sword and the Pen.....	716	The Fishery Policy.....	186	Major-General Napier.....	410
Canada's Emblem.....	732	Loss of the Onida .....	186	Metropolitan Rifle Association.....	410
After the Battle.....	748	Field Services of Colonel Robertson Ross, the Adjutant-General.....	186	Domintion Board of Trade.....	425, 471
A Message.....	761	Communications with the North West.....	201	English Whig-Radicals.....	425
A Bit of a Battle.....	780	Sir A. T. Galt and Annexation.....	202	Hon Mr. Campbell's Mission to England.....	425
Noblemen.....	796	Domintion Rifle Association.....	199	Position of Canada.....	410
The Toy of the Giant's Hands.....	812	Canal Systems of Canada.....	216	The Fisheries and Canada's Future.....	411
		Report on the State of the Militia.....	217	Spatelets of the British Press.....	412
		General Lindsay's Mission.....	218	The Organ of Independence.....	412
		Concentration of Population in Great Britain.....	218	Debate on the Colonial Question.....	412
		Red River Rebellion Murder.....	251	The Spectator (English) on Canada.....	457
		The Fisheries.....	251, 323, 173	European crisis and our position.....	458
		Fresh Water Canals and Seagoing Vessels.....	251	End of the Manitoba troubles.....	459
		Route to Red River.....	251	Departure of H.R.H. Prince Arthur.....	459
		Indignation.....	249	The European contest.....	472, 490
		The Bombay and Quebec .....	249	The Morning Chronicle and Times .....	473
		New York Press on Red River Murder.....	249	The two Tariffs.....	473
		Fenians.....	250, 261	Annexation of the Northwest to Canada.....	475
		Red River Refugees and Delegates.....	250	Fenian Raid of 1865.....	486
		Volunteers to the Front.....	251	"Canadian Militia Officer" in the Broad Arrow .....	488
		Volunteers on Active Service.....	251	Immigration.....	501
		Fire at Parliament Buildings.....	251	Canada and a standing army.....	501
		Suspension of Habeas Corpus Act.....	251	The ocean Yacht race.....	505
		Militia—Military Tactics.....	251	Thanks to the Volunteers.....	505
		Indignation Meeting at Ottawa.....	251	Rebuke to the Annexationists in Quebec.....	505
		Invasion.....	251	Feeling of the American Press to England.....	505
		Officers Drafted.....	251	Honor to the Adjutant General.....	506
		Reilly's Post Laureate.....	251	Wants of the Canadian army.....	508
		Case of the Officers of the 7th Batt. Brockville Battery Artillery's Hall.....	251	Answer to queries for Domintion Match.....	506, 522
		Fenian Raid.....	251	Canada—in the House of Lords.....	521
		Red River emette.....	251	Adjutant General's report—from the Volunteer News.....	521
		Gunboats.....	251	Volunteer News on the American dependancies.....	521
		Torpedos & Ironclads.....	251	Recognition of services of Canadian Volunteers.....	522
		Red River Expedition.....	251, 314, 523	Thanks to Lt.-Col. Laurie.....	522
		Fenians and U. States Neutrality.....	252	Future of the British Empire.....	523
		Answer to "Bushwhacker".....	252	His Honor Judge Jarvis.....	528
		The People and the Fenians.....	252	Caulhawaga Canal.....	528
		Red River Delegates.....	253	Transfer of armament and forts to the Domintion Government.....	533
		Washington interpretation of Intercolonial obligations.....	257	Development of our Militia system.....	552
		Mexico.....	297, 313	Whig-Radicals and the colonies.....	531
		Report of the Red River Commissioner.....	298	Canada and the Empire.....	533
				Whig-Radicals and the war.....	531
				Prizes for the Volunteer Militia.....	531
				The great fire.....	531
				Military honors.....	535

CORRESPONDENCE.

"Quebec".....	5, 89
From Halifax.....	37
31st Batt. Grey, Ont.....	38, 790
Red River Difficulty—Transport of troops.....	38
Here or There; or, the way things are done in England and the way they are not done in Canada.....	69
By L. C.....	69, 806
"Trooper".....	69
From Three Rivers.....	53
Notes from Crimean Journal, By R. L.....	70, 131, 214
Names of battles on the Standards and Colors of regiments of the English army. By Capt. L. N. Voyer.....	86
"R. L.".....	87
"G. W.".....	101
Reviews—G. W.....	102
From St. Catharines.....	119
A little gossip on some matters of Taste. By G. W.....	119
Militaire.....	151
"Volunteer".....	166, 382, 787
Veritas.....	181
Bushwhacker.....	197, 253, 471, 806
A Loyal Volunteer.....	198
Transport of troops to Red River.....	198
From Quebec.....	195
Colors for the 50th regt. "Huntingdon Borderers" and 51st "Huntingford Rangers".....	216
Rifle Associations in the 2nd Brigade Division.....	215
R. Lovelace.....	216
The attack in column.....	216
The Force at Huntingdon.....	223
Huntingdon Frontier.....	273
"Company drill".....	279
"An Enquirer".....	279
The Stalheona Rifles, Quebec.....	283
Jas. Estaline.....	281, 616, 662
"Toronto".....	285
From Belleville.....	310
From Montreal (special).....	310
"A Volunteer Captain".....	326
Haranguing troops.....	326
"A Volunteer".....	373, 373, 406, 677, 806
"C. D.".....	390
John Duff.....	391
"Hilferan".....	391, 755