A Pennsylvania doctor, who has a decided vein of humor in his makeup, tells this story: "I had an Irishwoman for a patient many years," said the doctor. "God rest her soul, she is now dead. I once pulled her through a lingering attack of typhoid, taking her temperature from time to time by having her hold a thermometer under her tongue. When she had nearly recovered, I called one day, and, without further testing her temperature, left a simple prescription and started on my way homeward. About three miles from her house I was overtaken by her son on horseback. 'Mother is worse,' said he, 'come right back.' Back I went. 'Doctor,' said the old lady, reproachfully, 'why didn't ye give me the jigger andther my tongue? That did me more good than all the rest of yer other d— thrash!'"
