MEDICAL BARONETCIES.—So far as we can learn, twenty-six baronetcies have been conferred on members of the medical profession during the last one hundred years. George III bestowed baronetcies on Sir Walter Farquhar, 1796 ; Sir Richard Jebb, Sir Everard Home, and Sir Henry Halford, 1809. The baronetcies of Jebb and Home are now extinct. George IV gave baronetcies to Sir M. Tierney and Sir Astley Cooper, 1821. The baronetcy of Tierney is now extinct. William IV conferred baronetcies on Sir Charles Mansfield Clarke, 1831, and Sir Benjamin Brodie, 1834. We believe the following is a complete list of the baronetcies bestowed on members of our profession by Her Majesty : Sir James Clark, 1837 ; Sir Henry Marsh and Sir Philip Crampton, 1839 ; Sir Henry Holland, 1853 ; Sir Charles Locock, 1857 ; Sir William Fergusson, 1866 ; Sir James Simpson, 1866 ; Sir Dominic Corrigan, 1866 ; Sir Thomas Watson, 1866 ; Sir William Lawrence, 1867 ; Sir William Jenner, 1868 ; Sir James Paget, 1871 ; Sir Robert Christison, 1871 ; Sir William Gull, 1872 ; Sir George Burrows, 1874 ; Sir Spencer Wells, 1883 ; Sir Andrew Clark, 1883 ; Sir Prescott Hewett, 1883. Of the baronetcies conferred by the Queen, one, that of Marsh, is extinct. Of the eighteen medical baronets created during the present reign, eight survive. Of the eighteen Victoria baronetcies, eleven have been given to physicians, five to surgeons, and two to obstetric physicians. All the eight medical baronets now living practise in London.
