CAPITAL AND LABOUR.

Capital is simply the savings of previous labour and is useful in sustaining present and future labour

Capital, therefore, is produced by labour. Labour is simply toilsome work, which is generally performed under the direction of bosses or task-masters, and is rewarded by drafts on the fruits of previous labour or Capital. Labour, therefore, is sustained by Capital. Capital and Labour are inter-dependants.

The custodians of Capital may abuse their position and grind the faces of labourers; and, labourers may form trades-unions and organize strikes ; but, labour and capital will not quarrel any more than a man will quariel with his meals. Cheapside be lieves in paying labour handsomely, as no country can be prosperous without well paid labourers.

IN MEMORIAM.

MISS FRANCES DONOVAN. Ob. Nov. 14th, 1877.

The Lord, one eve, from heaven high, His virgin garden peered all o'er ; When, lo! there gleamed unto His eye

The brightest pearl that earth e're bore. Eager He looked-nor yet in vain, For, at His sight each flow'ry gem

That had before unheeded lain Now shone resplendent on its stem.

His glance fell on a gentle bower Where lovely roses countless grew But midst their fragrance bloomed a flow'r

That bowed beneath her Maker's view. For, shadowed by the roses red,

A spotless lily He espied, That lowly bent her humble head,

As if her modest charms to hide.

For 'mid the unsullied purity, Which cast a halo round Him there,

That flow'r, so rich in modesty, Among the fairest seemed most fair.

In admiration long he g zed,

Then culling out from all the rest The lily from her stem He raised And placed upon His loving breast.

Nay, sister flowers, why droop so sad, Why languish there 'neath sorrow's pain ?-Your love, in heavenly radiance clad,

Now moves among the angel train. Nay, weep not then, because He named One beauteous lily for His own; Weep not because one soul He claimed Too pure for aught but Him alone!

COMMUNICATIONS.

THE CHIEFTANCY OF THE WATER POLICE

To the Editor of the TRUE WITNES.

DEAR SIR -- Perhaps the present Government could not at this time do a more grateful act than to appoint Mr. Michael McLaughlin to the position held by his late respected father. Mr. McLaughlin is eminently fitted for the stuation by his knowledge of the onerous duties required, by his education and general ability. He can speak both our languages with fluency, he is thoroughly au fait as to the duties of the post, and his appointment would give universal satisfaction not only to the Irish Catholics but to the people of Montreal generally.

The late Chief performed his duty with Spartan honesty and impartiality, and as a consequence died poor. He kept entirely aloof from politics, although his con supported the present party in power in a manner which entitles him to some show of favor from the present Gevernment.

Yours respectfully, A CONSERVATIVE.

EXPLANATION.

paper report of my address made in Montreal. In the report I am made to speak of the Irish Catholic Union of Ottawa whereas in my address I gave the I make this explanation as perhaps the other elements in the Union besides the Irish may consider that I have slighted them for my own nation-

the Dickens. As is meet and proper (indeed meat and drick to his audience) Bey Mr McGilivray begins with a pious howl over the grave of the murdered Hackett who according to the evidence was, at all events, tolerably well supplied with carnal weapons when he attended divine service on that to him fatal 12th. Foolish boy! did not the "open Bible" admonish him : "He that taketh the sword shall die by the sword," But to come back to the Dickens. Take up, senior orangemen, Bev. Mc-Gillivrays and Orange Young Britons (benighted young orangemen), the American notes by our incomparable English novelist. Examine particularly his remarks on Toronto, where, in the now metropolis of Ontario, a few days or a week before the arrival of that "nature's nobleman" a cold blooded murder had been committed beneath the protecting shade of a certain color, read it for yourselves. And then the pent-up feelings of a generons soul bursting forth as follows: " Of all the colors of the rainbow, I quote from memory, one alone there is that can countenance such damnable atrocities-I need not tell my readers which-the Orange." Read it for yourselves Orangemen and Rev. McGillivray's and boil over with "loyal" indignation not against the " Papists" but-and yow vengeance too,-against the immortal Dickens who has penned this sublime verdict against the insane rabble that compose the Orange Society. Dart too, if you wish, a venemous shaft against "Merrie old England" and her glorious Constitution which has at all times consistently and persistently refused to recognize-the Orange. I have no sympathy with the bloody fray of last 12th July, but for the benefit of blood and thunder preachers whether lay or clerical who, especially on each recurring 12th July and 5th Nov., so gallantly bestride the Protestant horse, and sow discord among breihren, for their behoof, I say we will quote from the book of books: "They who sow the wind shall reap the whirlwind."

Withal a bland spirit, a spirit of love, an oily substance, if you wish, seems to permeate the "explo-sion" from the Rev. Mr McGillivray. His beart goes out in sympathy to the the poor Catholics who are struggling against manifold difficulties onwards, towards the truth "as it is in Jesus." To go back to the Dickens Rev. Chadband practises " poor Jo" but Rev. Mr McGillivray with his larger and more refined sympathies practises on the "Romans" in Spain, France, Italy, Germany—in fact in a spirit of love he embraces them all in all parts of the globe. I would advise the Catholics of Brockville one and all to procure a copy of David Copperfield and make a special study of that grand creation of Dickens's mind; the Rev. Chadband,

I know that I don't intend to try even to demolish his learnned and weighty arguments against the dootrines of Mother Church. Let them be communicated to the Pope and no doubt His Holiness will convince the College of Cardinals as he did in the celebrated case of Tom Connors's cat. (vid Bandy Andy.)

Now to give a crumb of comfort to Rev McGil'ivray and the Orange Young Britons, the Catholic Church is gaining ground every day and every where. In a month or thereabout the "man of sin" will recetab. lish the "Romish" Hierarchy in the land of Knox. Three hundred years ago the venerable Bishops were obliged to go forth "weoping as they went"-in our day we have lived to see it, thank God, they are going back with joy and exultation."

THE LATE JOHN MCLAUGELIN. - CHIEF OF THE GOVERNMENT RIVER POLICE.—We regret to have to announce the death of Mr. John McLaughlin, Chief of the Government Biver Police, who expired at half-past ten o'clock on Saturday last, at his resi-dence, 347 Dorchester street, of asthma, in his 62nd year. He was born in the county of Roscommon, Ireland, and joined the Royal Irish Constabulary at the age of 19. Three years later hisstrict attention Metropolitan do with analysis.do 3,00 to duty and ability caused him to be raised to the position of Sergeant-a very rare appointment for so young a man. After seven years further service he resigned, and came to Canada with a view to better his position, mainly at the solicitation of relatives who were settled in this country. In the course of a few months he joined the city police iorce, of which he continued a member for four or five years, rising to the position of acting-sergeant. On a reduction being made in the force he, with others, was discharged. On or about that time the Hon. John Young's bill for the organization of a River Police passed the Upper House, and the force was formed, and the late Mr. McLaughlin was appointed a sergeant therein. Two years latter the then Chief, Mr. Brine, dicd, and Mr. McLaughlin was appointed in his stead. This position he ably filed until his death. Mr. McLaughlin was a brother-in-law of the late Mr. Flynn, Chief of the Sanitary police, and was of similar, kind unobtrusive temperament, strictly attentive to his dutics, and conscientiously just in all his actions. The late Mr. McLaughlia in the course of his duties took part in several important arrests, including that of Colonel Brown, whom he followed to Europe and arrested in Germany, on the charge of embezzling the monies of the Government, and those of American crimps, for decoying soldiers across the lines, and of the St. Alban's raiders, several of S whom he re arrested after their discharge by the Court. Mr. McLaughlin leaves a wife and three sons, and numerous relatives to lament his loss. The funeral took place yesterday at 8 a.m. The cortege included a large number of private citizens, members of the Irish societics, the Government River Police, under Sergeants Wilson, Holdbrook and Nourie, and fifty members of the City Police under Sub-Ohief Nacgle and Sergeant Richardson.
