

million, and Dr. Medhurst assures us they are zealously ministered to by competent priests, on the ample salary of £17 or £20 per annum."—p. 225.

This naturally leads to the consideration of the comparative costliness of Catholic and Protestant Missions—a subject which the Reviewer also treats of: but we must postpone our remarks thereupon to another issue. We may merely notice, that our Protestant witness makes two important admissions as to Catholic Missions. One; that great as was their success in China, India and Japan that they reached their most characteristic development.

The other, that in the East those Missions "were checked by the disgraceful conduct of the Dutch [Protestants] whose own attempts at conversion were of the most lame and impotent kind."—p. 225.

We subjoin the explanation of the Toronto Freeman, which is quite satisfactory, and highly creditable to the writer. We beg to assure the editor of the Freeman that we are certain that he would not wilfully be guilty of disrespect to the Clergy; and that we have no reason to feel offended with his tone as towards our humble selves:—

THE PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES.

AN EXPLANATION.

In replying to the paragraph published by the True Witness on the 8th inst., respecting the opinions of the Hierarchy of Lower Canada and the proposed constitutional changes, we labored under the disadvantage of not having seen or read our contemporary's article. At a distance from Toronto, and where a copy of the True Witness was not procurable, we were informed that a severe castigation had been administered by our Montreal confere to the Freeman for presuming to make allusion to the Hierarchy and Clergy of Lower Canada in connection with politics or political parties. Not imagining that a brief paragraph which appeared in our columns among other political rumors, was of so deep concern, or so calculated to compromise or offend any one, as to draw down on our head the vials of wrath of our contemporary, we replied to the True Witness on the 14th with somewhat more acerbity than the real circumstances of the case warranted. We did so under the false impression conveyed to us by our informant, respecting the tone and tenor of the original paragraph of the 8th inst.

We learn, for the first time, from the True Witness of the 22nd inst., that that journal simply calls for information respecting our statement "as to the sanction given by the Hierarchy and Clergy of Lower Canada to the much-talked of political changes." We are further informed by our contemporary that in putting "the questions objected to, to the Freeman," he did not act "proprio motu but in obedience to instructions from one whom the Toronto Freeman had gravely compromised with the public, &c."

In the first place, we have to express regret for having misapprehended the gist of our contemporary's remarks, and for our curt rejoinder. We trust, under the circumstances already explained, he will hold us excusable.

Secondly, we beg to say it was very far from our intention to compromise any one of our ecclesiastical superiors. Having done so, unwittingly, however, we have to tender our respectful apology to the venerable Prelate referred to by our Montreal contemporary, for the seeming discourtesy of our reply to questions which, we would conclude from the True Witness, were dictated by His Lordship.

The objectionable paragraph was written by us in Quebec. The information upon which it was based was furnished us by parties who professed to be, and whom we supposed to be, au courant upon all matters relating to the Bishops and Clergy of Lower Canada. Relying upon the veracity and authority of our informants, we penned the statement in question. We cannot, without a breach of confidence, publish the names of the gentlemen who assured us of the contemplated changes had the sanction of the Hierarchy and Clergy of Lower Canada; but we have no hesitation in withdrawing this statement in so far as it is objectionable to any Prelate or priest in Lower Canada. Finally, from the fact that we do not ourselves look upon the constitutional changes, which the present Ministry profess to have in view, with much favor and that we feel very little confidence of any practical or satisfactory result following from the late coalition, we claim acquittal from all intention of endorsing or enlisting support for the future policy of the Government by having made mention, in connection therewith, of the sanction of the ecclesiastical authorities of Lower Canada.

With this explanation, we trust the digressions to whom the True Witness has made allusion, and our contemporary himself, will be satisfied. It is offered in the spirit of sincerity, and with an earnest desire of making a proper and ample amende.

THE LONDON "TIMES" ON CANADA.—The Times has some very appropriate remarks upon Canada, and the probable consequences of the civil war raging on the other side of the Lines. We make some extracts:—

Canada has been exceedingly fortunate in the course which the American war has taken. Had the North succeeded in immediately conquering and overrunning the South, the wave that flowed thither would infallibly have recoiled upon Canada, and she, unarmed and unready, would certainly have been overwhelmed by its violence. Instead of tamely submitting to an Austrian Emperor in the South, Republican pride would have spurned the idea of a British colony in the North. But the Confederation has stood between us and this great danger. General Lee has fought our battles as well as his own, and a hundred bloody fields have swallowed up that fierce and, as they believed, invincible host which was destined to eradicate the last trace of British supremacy from the American Continent. As the contest continued, the forces of the two parties became more equal, and we may now indulge a hope that the termination of the Civil War, when it comes, will leave the North, whether victorious or vanquished, in a disposition rather to seek repose after its almost superhuman efforts than to rush on fresh adventures. Still this conclusion is by no means certain. The conclusion of the war may leave the Northern States in the possession of an army which they dare not disband and cannot conveniently employ, and that army may demand to be led against the untouched and flourishing province of Canada. It is quite possible that the North may seek on the St. Lawrence an indemnity for what it has lost on the Potomac.

There is also another danger, which it were idle to disregard. It seems to be our policy to leave in Canada—as a nucleus, we suppose, round which native levies may gather—some nine or ten thousand British troops, which have till lately been scattered over a frontier line of a thousand miles, peculiarly easy of attack, and possessing no means of defence. If we wish to allure the American army across the great Lakes, we could hold out to them no bait more irresistible than this small band of English soldiers. No doubt those ardent patriots who have been urging us for the last three months to undertake with a few thousand men the expulsion of two first class military Powers from Jutland and Schleswig will be perfectly easy as to the fate of this little band, and believe that against its invincible ranks the innumerable hosts of the Northern States will melt away like hailstones in the sun. We hold no such comfortable conviction. Our troops would doubtless do their duty, but would be utterly insignificant against the forces opposed to them. We therefore view with some anxiety the policy which leaves so rich a prize within the grasp of a nation which external losses and internal revolution, financial ruin and social disorganization, may at any time drive upon the most desperate enterprises.

PRESENTATION OF AN ADDRESS TO REV. M. TIMLIN, COBOURG.

On Wednesday, 20th ult., a deputation of gentlemen belonging to the congregation under the charge of the Rev. M. Timlin, waited upon that gentleman and presented him with an Address, previous to his departure for Europe, where he goes on a short tour for the benefit of his declining health. We give the Address and Reply below. Both as a minister or the Gospel and as a citizen, during a residence of upwards of 20 years amongst us, he has earned the confidence and love of those committed to his pastoral charge, whilst he has won the respect and esteem of all sects of Protestants, and we believe he bears with him not only the anxious solicitude of his own congregation, but the good wishes of all who have the pleasure of his acquaintance. May he enjoy a pleasant tour, and return soon re-invigorated in spirit and body.

To the Rev. Michael Timlin, Pastor of St. Michael's Church, Cobourg.

Reverend and Dear Sir:—We the undersigned, on behalf of your parishioners, over whom you have for over twenty years exercised spiritual control, finding that you are about quitting the scene of your labors for a time, and paying a visit to your native shores, seize the present opportunity, as a fitting one to express to you our honest gratitude for the many benefits, both spiritual and temporal, we received at your hands during the many years of your ministration amongst us. We respectfully beg leave to assure you, reverend father, that you bear with you to your native land, the prayers of your devoted flock, and that we shall never forget to implore the giver of all Good, to grant you a favourable voyage, a speedy restoration of your health and strength, and above all, a safe return into the midst of your humble, but ever faithful flock.

We regret, reverend father, that we did not learn at an earlier period, your intention to revisit the land of your fathers, for we know it would be the most earnest desire of your flock, to accompany this humble address with some substantial testimonial of our attachment and esteem, which at present it is impossible for us to offer you. Hoping that your visit may be a pleasant one, and that God may grant you still many days of health and usefulness, we remain your ever devoted children.

Signed on behalf of the congregation,

REPLY.

My Dearly Beloved Parishioners:—It is with feelings of no common nature that I have listened to the kind Address which has just been read to me. My declining health renders it necessary that I should enjoy a short respite from my spiritual labors, and the present opportunity offered me I take advantage of to re-visit my native land, and enjoy for a few short weeks the healthy atmosphere of Ireland. I have now been your pastor and spiritual guide for over twenty years, during which time I have endeavored to discharge the duties of my mission to the satisfaction of my parishioners, and to the honor and glory of God. It affords me much satisfaction to receive the expressions of attachment towards me contained in your Address; and your submission on this occasion is to me another proof, among the many you have before given me, of the truly Christian spirit which animates you in everything. I leave you now but for a short time, and hope to return, God willing, in renewed health and vigor. You will pray for me for my preservation and safe return; and continue to cultivate a feeling of Godliness and Christian charity amongst one another. Be attentive to your religious duties, and follow in the footsteps of our Saviour—doing good to all men, and loving all men for his namesake. I wish you all prosperity and happiness, and until my return, I pray, may God bless you all.

MICHAEL TIMLIN, Priest.

PRESENTATION.

On Saturday, the 23d ult., a number of the friends of Mr. Wm. McKay, decorative painter, took occasion of his departure from this city (Quebec), for Ottawa, to present him with an address expressive of their regret at his removal from their midst. Mr. McKay is a man of excellent taste and skill in his line of art, and his loss will be felt in Quebec. At the same time we cannot but congratulate Mr. McGreevy, the contractor for the Parliament House, on the good judgment he has shown, in this as in other matters, in selecting Mr. McKay to undertake the internal decoration of the building. Many of our public buildings bear the testimony of Mr. McKay's artistic taste. The interior of the old Parliament House, destroyed in 1854, displayed some of his finest workmanship. On several occasions, and more particularly at the Provincial exhibition in 1850, Mr. McKay took prizes for his unrivalled imitation of Canadian woods. The presentation took place at Russell's Hotel, at two o'clock p.m. We subjoin the ADDRESS.

To William McKay, Esq.—Dear Sir:—On the eve of your departure for the city of Ottawa, the future seat of Government, we cannot permit you to leave without expressing our regret at your removal from our midst, after a residence of high a quarter of a century.

Many of us have had the pleasure of an intimate acquaintance with you during that time, and our esteem and respect for your integrity of purpose, kindness of heart, and manly and honorable feeling in every relation of life have daily increased.

While regretting the necessity that removes you from amongst us, we can only express our heartfelt wish for your future prosperity and success in your new home.

If active business habits, a superior intelligence, and a thorough practical knowledge of your profession can win "Dame Fortune's smiles," you must succeed.

Wishing you, Mrs. McKay and family, every happiness, every blessing, we bid you farewell. God bless you.

Quebec, 23rd July, 1864.

The address bore the signatures of Hon. Mr. A. Levesque, Hon. Mr. Cauchon, A. G. Tourangeau, Mayor, Thomas Gibb, Rev. B. McGarran, Rev. John Cook, D. E. G. O. Stuart, Q. C., J. B. Renaud, James Gibb, P. Garneau, T. U. Lee, Forsyth & Bell, John Gilmoder, D. D. Young, C. Tetu, W. Dunn, Sheriff S. Wells, Dr. Maraden, Rev. W. B. Clark, Rev. J. Murphy, Rev. A. Gauthier, Coroner Panet, G. H. Simard, R. S. Cassels, W. Herring, F. Woods, W. Crawford, Henry McElin, Wm. Quinn, John Hearn, John Giblin, H. C. Austin, Jas. Gillespie, O. A. Russell, and some hundred and fifty other leading citizens, whose names want of space prevents us from publishing.

To which Mr. McKay returned the following REPLY:

Gentlemen,—During my long residence among you, and amid many trials, I have had repeated proofs of the kindness and goodness of heart which distinguishes the citizens of Quebec; but this last token of your esteem touches me more deeply than I can express in words.

Rest assured, gentlemen, that in my new home I shall strain every nerve to accomplish the duties of my condition, so as to maintain the high and flattering estimate you have formed of me, and rest assured also, that my regret of parting from so many among you is only equalled by the stern necessities of life which control us all without distinction.

On behalf of Mrs. McKay, my children, and myself, I thank you most kindly, gentlemen; and bid you, one and all, good bye.—Quebec Chronicle.

THANKS.—It is with much pleasure that we copy, from the Montreal Gazette, the following just tribute of praise to a well deserving and faithful servant of the Grand Trunk Railway Company, Mr. Thomas Trihey:—

THE ACCIDENT NEAR ISLAND POND.

Island Pond, Ind., July 26th, 1864.

To the Editor of the Montreal Gazette.

Sir,—Permit us through the columns of your widely circulated paper, to express thus publicly our thanks to Mr. Thomas Trihey, Conductor on the Grand Trunk Railway, for the kind and humane attention he paid to us whilst suffering from the effects of the accident, occasioned by a broken rail, that took place between Boundary Line and Island Pond this afternoon.

ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH AND ASYLUM.—We have just seen Messrs. Scott & Co.'s magnificent photograph of St. Patrick's Church, with Orphan Asylum in back ground, and dome of Jesuit College in the distance, and have no hesitation in pronouncing it a most creditable specimen of the artistic ability of this photographic establishment. We would also presume, from the veneration the Irish congregation have for the sacred edifice, together with their Orphan institution, there will be few houses without a copy, which, we are informed, Messrs. Scott and Co.'s purpose publishing at a very reasonable price.

We have received from Messrs. Murray & Co., Stationers' Hall, corner of Notre Dame and St. John Streets, a well got up Card, showing the table of duties on Promissory Notes, &c., from $100 to $3,000. It should be in every counting-house.

CONVENT EXAMINATION AT CHARLOTTETOWN, PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.—The Annual Examination of the Pupils of the Convent de Notre Dame, took place at St. Andrew's Hall, Pownal-street, on Thursday last, in the presence of his Lordship the Bishop and several of his Clergy, and also of the Hon. Charles Waters and other New Brunswick gentlemen, besides a large number of the citizens of Charlottetown. The sight of the pretty and well-dressed children was a pleasure in itself, whilst the proficiency displayed by them in music, rhetoric, natural philosophy, botany, history, geography and English grammar, reflected the highest credit not only upon themselves for their application and diligence, but also upon the zeal and efficiency of their teachers, the good Ladies of the Convent. The marked progress and improvement effected by the pupils in the above branches since the previous examination, gave much gratification to their parents and also to the visitors generally, who were led to the conclusion that, as an educational establishment, the Convent de Notre Dame, Charlottetown, cannot be excelled in the Lower Provinces. His Lordship and the Hon. Mr. Waters, at the conclusion of the examination, which was interspersed with drama and vocal and instrumental music, expressed themselves highly delighted at the creditable proficiency exhibited by the pupils, and congratulated them upon having easy access to an Institution where the most solid and finished education could be obtained at rates within the means of all.—Vindicator.

ST. DUNSTON'S COLLEGE, CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I.—The Examination at St. Dunstan's College, on Wednesday last, was, as usual, highly interesting and successful, as regards the efficiency of the young gentlemen taught at that Institution. It commenced about half-past ten o'clock and continued until nearly four. It was graced by the presence of his Lordship the Bishop of Charlottetown, by nearly all the Catholic Clergy of the Diocese; the audience including, besides the parents of the students, and old friends of the Institutions, ladies and gentlemen of various denominations from Charlottetown and distant parts of the Island. Amongst the numerous classes examined were, Greek, Latin and French, Geometry, Natural Philosophy and History, in all of which the answers to the questions of the examiners were readily and correctly given. The College Band, at intervals, played several fine pieces of music; and a dramatic performance was also given, which, though long, was very interesting and served to relieve the more serious part of the examination. The Right Rev. Dr. McIntyre distributed the prizes, which were quite numerous, and addressed the students afterwards, congratulating them on their successful examination. Hon. Mr. Whelan also delivered a brief address in commendation of the prosperous condition of the institution. The national anthem having been sung by all the students to the accompaniment of the Piano Forte, the audience separated.—Examiner.

The "glorious 12th" was observed in this City on last Thursday week, by a display of flags on Orange Hall. We also observed one flaunting on the premises of Chief Justice Hodgson! Alas for justice and liberty!—Charlottetown Vindicator.

THE STAMP DUTIES.—The new stamp duties came into force on the 1st, so that every document now required to be stamped, will have a stamp affixed before it can be legal.

THE PROPOSED REMOVAL OF TROOPS FROM THE WEST.—The Governor General enters a Protest.—We understand, on good authority, that his Excellency the Governor General has entered a protest against the action of the Home Government in deciding upon removing the Regular troops from the Western garrisons. If this report be correct, no doubt it will weigh heavily in favor of the troops remaining as they are at present, notwithstanding the fact that several thousand racks for the arms of the regulars have been already ordered in Montreal. His Excellency the Governor General argues that all troops in Canada could be concentrated at a given point in a few hours, should danger threaten any one section of Canada.—London (C.W.) Free Press.

THE NORTH ONTARIO ELECTION.—The contest in North Ontario has resulted in the defeat of the Hon. Wm. McDougall, Provincial Secretary, and the return of his opponent, Mr. M. C. Cameron, by a majority of 100.

SUDDEN DEATH.—About nine o'clock yesterday morning an aged laboring man named Michel Picard 65 years, while employed by the City Surveyor in repairing side-walks in Rousseau street suddenly fell down and immediately expired. His body was conveyed to Jacques Cartier station house where an inquest was held and a verdict of accidental death returned. He has a son residing in St. Johns and a son-in-law in this City.—Herald, 29th ult.

The body of a man, in an advanced state of decomposition, was yesterday morning found by Theophile Normandin, in the canal, under a raft, a short distance above Cantin's ship yard. He appeared to be about 35 years of age, above medium height, dark hair, wore a thin yellow wrapper, no coat or vest, a blue woollen shirt, and chequered woollen pantaloons, shoes, no stockings. In his pocket, a penny-piece and a cent, with a rosary. The body was removed to the R. C. Cemetery for interment.—Transcript, 2nd inst.
