CHARLES AUSTIN BATES

Vanderbilt Building, New York.

"Mr. Bates' Masterpiece. It is interestingly and readably written—more readable than one would believe possible on so hackneyed a subject as advertising—and it is illustrated by pictures intended to lend a humorous turn to many of the sentences in the text. For those who want a general idea of advertising principles, the book will be found valuable, and even the readers to whom its subject is more than familiar will find it an interesting companion for a leisure hour. It is full of aptness, every one of which rings with a true note."
—Geo. P. Rowell.

THE mortgagees have advertised the confectionery stock of Peter McIntyre, in Hamilton, for sale.

W. M. CHACE, D. L. Brockway, and R. L. House, carrying on business as the London Hydraulic Company, in Atlin district, have assigned to E. G. Tennant, of Atlin. The creditors were to meet in Atlin, on September 28th.

AN appropriation of $30,000 has been made by the Canadian Pacific Railway to complete the work of straightening and improving the Columbia and Kootenay branch between Nelson and Robson. This makes $60,000 for the work in one year.

In the North-western American States, it is said, lumbermen are unable to supply the demand for lumber. Dry stock has long since become almost unknown in the market, and prices for green lumber have advanced so much that many building schemes will have to stand over.

FROM Charlottetown we receive the following, under date 22nd September: Harvesting operations are about completed. Experienced farmers say that the crop in general this season on Prince Edward Island is the best for the last thirty years. The oat crop is exceedingly heavy, though broken down considerably by the rain and wind a few days ago. The wheat crop has been saved in first-class condition.

ABOUT seven years ago, D. Zant opened a dry goods store in Tilsonburg. At that time he had $2,500, cash. After he had been five years in business, his statement showed a surplus of $8,000. Last February he sold his stock and moved to Port Burwell, where he bought an hotel. Three months later he was burned out, and claimed to have lost $6,000 above an insurance of $4,000. Now he assigns.—Last month, Orliff M. Alger, grocer at Castleton, failed, and endeavored to compromise with creditors, but being unsuccessful, he assigns to E. R. C. Clarkson.

EVERYTHING points to the gradual building up of Sydney, C.B., into a very large manufacturing town. We learn that Mr. H. M. Whitney has purchased two of the finest properties in Sydney, "Ashby," the home of the late Henry Davenport, and "Colby," the home of the late William Routledge. The price paid was $44,560. It is the intention of the Dominion Iron and Steel Co. to build 1,000 cottages on the property. The officials' cottages will be built on the Colby property and the workmen's on the Ashby. It is also said that the hospital will be built near this property. The centre of these properties will be reserved for a park, which may be called Whitney Park.
