

Riddle-Me-Rie

My first is in raven, but not in crow.
My second in icy, but not in snow.
My third is in clever, but not in wise.
My fourth is in lofty, but not in rise.
My fifth is in robber, but not in thief.
My sixth is in cornstalk, but not in sheaf.
My seventh is in noisy, but not in din.
My whole is what Britons long to win.

The Wind

The wind gives us a dreadful fright;
When we are in our bed at night,
It whistles loud and blows the snow,
And swings the tree tops to and fro.

It makes the big snow banks around,
Which nearly covers all the ground.
The boys and girls go out to slide,
Oh! say, they have a jolly ride.
