

ARTICLE IV

Where one of the contracting States imposes taxes by reason of the property's being situated therein such State shall, if the decedent was domiciled in the other contracting State:

- (a) for the purpose of determining the tax or rates, take into account only property situated in such State, and
- (b) allow as an exemption an amount not less than an amount which bears the same ratio to the specific exemption that would be allowed if such State were imposing the tax by reason of the decedent's being domiciled therein, as the value of the property situated in such State bears to the entire value of the property wherever situated.

ARTICLE V

1. Where either contracting State imposes taxes by reason of a decedent's being domiciled therein or being a citizen thereof, that contracting State shall allow against so much of its taxes (as otherwise computed) as is attributable to property situated in the other contracting State a credit (not exceeding the amount of the taxes so attributable) equal to so much of the taxes imposed by the other contracting State as is attributable to such property.

2. Where each contracting State imposes taxes on any property situated outside both contracting States, each contracting State shall allow against so much of its taxes (as otherwise computed) as is attributable to such property a credit which bears the same proportion to the amount of its taxes so attributable or to the amount of the other contracting State's taxes attributable to the same property, whichever is the less, as the former amount bears to the sum of both amounts.

3. For the purposes of this Article, the amount of the taxes of a contracting State attributable to any property shall be ascertained after taking into account any credit, allowance or relief, or any remission or reduction of taxes, other than the credit authorized by this Article.

ARTICLE VI

1. Any claim for a credit or for a refund of taxes founded on the provisions of the Convention signed on June 8, 1944, or of the present supplementary Convention, shall be made within six years from the date of death of the decedent in respect of whose estate the claim is made, or, in the case of a reversionary interest where payment of taxes is deferred until the date on which the interest falls into possession, within six years from that date.

2. Any such refund shall be made without payment of interest on the amount so refunded.

ARTICLE VII

1. The present supplementary Convention shall be ratified and the instruments of ratification shall be exchanged at Washington as soon as possible.

2. The present supplementary Convention shall enter into force on the day of the exchange of the instruments of ratification and shall be applicable to estates or successions in the case of persons who die on or after that date, except as otherwise provided in Article VI. It shall continue effective indefinitely as though it were an integral part of the Convention of June 8, 1944, subject to the provisions of Article XIV of that Convention with respect to termination.
