

ARTICLE 10

Making Detained Persons Available to Give Evidence or Assist Investigations

1. A person serving a sentence in the Requested State shall, at the request of the Requesting State, be temporarily transferred to the Requesting State to assist investigations or to appear as a witness in the proceedings, provided that the person consents to that transfer.
2. When the person transferred is required to be kept in custody under the law of the Requested State, the Requesting State shall hold that person in custody and shall return the person in custody as soon as possible at the conclusion of the execution of the request.
3. When the sentence imposed expires, or where the Requested State advises the Requesting State that the transferred person is no longer required to be held in custody, that person shall be set at liberty and be treated as a person present in the Requesting State pursuant to a request seeking that person's attendance.

ARTICLE 11

Providing Evidence or Assisting Investigations in the requesting state

1. Upon request, the Requested State shall invite a person to assist in an investigation or to appear as a witness in the Requesting State and shall seek that person's consent. In seeking that consent, the Requesting State shall inform the person of any expenses payable.
2. The request shall indicate the approximate allowances payable and the travelling and subsistence expenses refundable by the Requesting State.
3. At the request of the Requesting State, the Requested State may grant the person an advance which shall be refunded by the Requesting State.

ARTICLE 12

Safe Conduct

1. Subject to Article 10(2), a person present in the Requesting State by consent in response to a request seeking that person's attendance, including the service of a summons, shall not be prosecuted, extradited, detained or subjected to any other restriction of personal liberty in that State for any acts or omissions which preceded that person's departure from the Requested State, nor shall that person be obliged to give evidence in any proceeding other than that to which the request relates.
2. Paragraph 1 of this Article shall cease to apply if a person, being free to leave the Requesting State, has not left within fifteen (15) days after receiving official notification that the person's attendance is no longer required or, having left, has voluntarily returned.
3. A person who fails to appear in the Requesting State in response to a request shall not be subjected to any sanction or compulsory measure in the Requested or Requesting State.
