

2. The Kyrgyz Party shall ensure the prompt issuance of, inter alia, licenses, permits, approvals (including zoning), customs clearances, and any other documentation necessary for the effective implementation of Cooperation Projects undertaken pursuant to this Agreement, in accordance with the national legislation of the Kyrgyz Party. The Kyrgyz Party shall advise the Canadian Party in advance of any requirements that impact the implementation of this Article
3. The Kyrgyz Party shall grant access to the Contributor, its personnel and its contractors and sub-contractors, consultants, suppliers and sub-suppliers to the Facility and other biological facilities and sites necessary for the effective implementation of Cooperation Projects undertaken pursuant to this Agreement.
4. The Kyrgyz Party shall grant access to the Contributor, its personnel and its contractors and sub-contractors, consultants, suppliers and sub-suppliers to biological facilities and sites and to the Facility for the recertification and monitoring of biological activities.
5. The Kyrgyz Party shall grant access to the Contributor and its personnel to the Facility and its pathogen collection for the purpose of on-site scientific collaboration and investigation, and access to other biological facilities (and their pathogen collections) where Cooperation Projects are undertaken.
6.
 - (a) The Kyrgyz Party shall ensure the provision of data and information necessary for the implementation of Cooperation Projects undertaken pursuant to this Agreement.
 - (b) Information that constitutes state secrets of the Kyrgyz Republic shall not be subject to transfer under this Agreement.
 - (c) Information that is transmitted under this Agreement or created as a result of its implementation and is considered by either Party to be confidential shall be clearly defined and identified as such. In particular, documents containing confidential information shall be marked accordingly.
 - (d) The Parties shall minimize the number of individuals having access to information identified as confidential.