

Railways, Canals and Telegraph Lines Committee—Con.

Reports—Con.
 Second, 3754
 Third, 4722

Rainy River, Ont., unemployment relief payments to, qu., 2252

Raisins

Customs tariff, 4261
 Duty on under Australian treaty, 923, 930

Ralston, Hon. J. L. (Shelburne-Yarmouth)

Anglo-Russian trade agreement, 1393
 Bailey's Brook, N.S., breakwater, 1917
 Bank Act Amdt. bill, 4453
 Barbed wire, duty, 1272
 Barrington, N.S., mail courier, 3862
 Beam trawlers, operations of, 3868
 Belliveau's Cove, N.S., postmastership, 3862
 British Import Duties Act, interpretation of, 576
 Budget, 3362. Mr. Bennett on sound money and issue of $35,000,000 in currency; dropping of proposal to conscript portions of deposits in banks and the insurance companies; Mr. Bennett on the turnover tax in 1931, 3362; unemployment insurance; length of time given for reply to the budget; non-maintenance of the equilibrium between revenue and expenditure, 3363; obligation of the Minister of Finance to forecast the results of his budget proposals; increase in the public debt since 1930 under administration of present government; spending the money saved by the late Liberal administration, 3364; making provision for the accrued interest; our total debt does not include all the liabilities of the dominion; guaranteed railway securities, guarantees with respect to the 1930, 1931 and 1932 wheat crops, the Manitoba savings bank, the Beauharnois project and interest payable by the government of Newfoundland; indirect liabilities of the country; Mr. Bennett on the necessity for a sinking fund in 1928, 3365; resumé of the record of the present Minister of Finance and his predecessor in office; record of expenditures since 1927, not including railways; paying the expenses of government with our exports; expenditure of relief money;

Ralston, Hon. J. L.—Con.
Budget—Con.

balancing the budget in Great Britain by cutting down expenditures, 3366; need for economy in public expenditures before imposing further taxation; cutting off ten per cent of the public services without regard to what the services may be; relief expenditures, loans and guarantees to railways; the government's operations in wheat speculation, 3367; gambling in the wheat market; Mr. Bennett on the Canadian Cooperative Wheat Producers, Limited, in 1932, 3368; no deliberate ordered policy to deal with unemployment; coming back to direct relief because of constitutional difficulties, 3369; placing responsibility for the two transcontinental railway systems; putting the Canadian National Railways on a sound capital position in order that it may be self-supporting, 3370; reconsideration of the proposal to deduct from pensioners the amount of their pensions; making a direct levy upon one class of the community, 3371; lack of any real reduction in expenditure; one million dollars for the radio commission; inequality of increases in the income tax; tax on sugar and removal of other foodstuffs from exempted list, 3372; nuisance taxes; taxation of Canadian companies by imposition of tax on bonds and on payments made out of Canada; taxation of foreign investments in this country; establishment of a stabilization fund; discrimination between commodities coming under stabilization fund, 3373; granting assistance to fishermen by way of bonus on shipments to United States and refusing licences to trawlers; coal subventions, 3374; proportion of revenue received from customs levies since 1926; cutting off our revenue by high customs tariffs; trade figures since 1928; retaliatory tariff on lumber imposed by United States, 3375; getting our trade policy from the United States; Mr. Meighen on international economic cooperation; index figures showing volume of industrial production and prices of agricultural and manufactured products, 3376; employment in all