

that have been of transcendent moment in the intellectual development of mankind in the past.

The University begs that Your Royal Highness will, on your return, convey to our illustrious Sovereign and our beloved Queen its most dutiful respects. And it hopes that your visit to Canada will be one of Your Royal Highness' most happy memories - a memory alike inspiring to you and to the country that has exhibited such intense loyalty to your person and to the throne.