

The verdant heaven that once the woods o'erspread,
And underneath a pensive twilight shed,
Is shrivelled all: dead the vine-mantled bowers,
And withered in their bloom the beautiful young flowers,
But lo! the ruthless storm its force hath spent;
And see! where sinking 'neath yon cloudy tent,
The sun withdraws his last cold, feeble ray,
Abandoning to Night his short and dubious sway.
A heavier gloom pervades the chilly air!
Now in their northern caves the Winds prepare,
The nitrous frost to sheet with dazzling white,
The long deserted fields at the return of light.
