

NEARLY READY.—150,000 will be issued of the first edition.

LLOYD'S AMERICAN GUIDE & RAILROAD DISASTERS IN THE UNITED STATES,

Since the Invention of the Locomotive to the Present Time.
CONTAINING

The Life of OLIVER EVANS, Inventor of the Iron Horse; Correct Engraving of the first Locomotive ever built.

Account of the Laying of the First Railroad Track in the United States; First Locomotive brought to this country; Gradual Improvements in the Iron Horse; Sketch of the Length and Value of all the Railroads now in this country.

A complete List of the STATIONS, TOWNS, CITIES, and DISTANCES, also the POPULATION of each place along the different Railroad Routes in the United States and Canadas.

With NEW ARRANGED TIME TABLES, SO CORRECT AND SIMPLE that a child can readily understand them; IT BEING A UNIVERSALLY ACKNOWLEDGED FACT THAT ALL RAILROAD GUIDE BOOKS NOW ISSUED IN AMERICA ARE SO COMPLICATED THAT NOT ONE PERSON IN A HUNDRED CAN UNDERSTAND THEM.

OPPOSITE EACH RAILROAD TIME TABLE WILL BE A DAGUERREIAN PORTRAIT OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE COMPANY.

Names of all Conductors on each Railroad.

GOOD and BAD Hotels and Refreshment Houses on each Railroad Route pointed out to the Traveler, regardless of fear or favor.

Advice of the utmost importance to the SAFETY and COMFORT OF RAILROAD PASSENGERS.

A full account of all those terrible Railroad Disasters that have occurred in this country since the invention of the Locomotive, with a List of the Killed and Wounded; CAUSES OF RAILROAD ACCIDENTS, and WHO ARE RESPONSIBLE.

Monthly Reports of the selling rates in New York of the bonds of the different Railroad Companies in the United States.

Maps of the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers, with their Towns, Cities, Population, and Channels correctly marked upon them.

300 Pages.—One Hundred Engravings.

BY J. TALFOURD LLOYD,

Author of "Lloyd's Steamboat Directory and Disasters on the Western Waters," over 1,000,000 copies of which have been sold the past fifteen months.

"Lloyd's American Guide and Railroad Disasters," will be issued Monthly, and sold at the low price of TWENTY-FIVE CENTS—one half off to the Trade—Sample Copies, 15 cents, sent to any part of the United States on receipt of Money.

Address Publishers,

J. T. LLOYD & CO.,
Bulletin Buildings, Philadelphia, Pa.