MR. LEICH HUNT'S RECENT WORKS.

A Jar of Honey from Mount Hybla.

By LEIGH HUNT.

Illustrated by RICHARD DOYLE.

Square demy 8vo. in a novel and elegant binding, price 14s.

"A luxury of taste pervades the illustration, the printing, even the binding. The jar is filled with delicate and noble fancies; with genuine Christmas associations of 'poetry, piety, revelry, superstition, story-telling, and masquing;' with pastoral and fire-side thoughts, and thoughts of deep humanity; with Fairy tales of antiquity, and the gossip of ancient holidays, and the Christmas poetry and cheerful piety of old. Every thing is turned to pleasurable account."—EXAMINER.

" A book acceptable at all seasons."-ATHENÆUM.

"The volume is abundantly rich in claims of every kind."—ATLAS.

"There is a revelling in the stores of poetical literature, an aptness in chasing a theme from poet to poet, a luxuriance of quotation, which marks the rambling prose papers of Mr. Hunt from the days of 'The Indicator' downwards. The cover itself is promising."—TIMES.

"Full of penetrating remarks cleverly expressed. Addison's definition of fine writing—thoughts natural but not obvious."—Spectaton.

"A charming book; full of delicate fancies."-MORNING HERALD.

"As a work suggestive of fine literature, pure morals, and good feeling, it may take rank with the best productions of its class."—OBSERVER.

Men, Women, and Books:

A SELECTION FROM HIS HITHERTO UNCOLLECTED PROSE WRITINGS.

By LEIGH HUNT.

In 2 vols. post 8vo. with a Portrait of the Author by Severn, price One Guinea, cloth.

"This is a book to be in the cherished corner of a pleasant room, and to be taken up when the spirits have need of sunshine. The book which the present most resembles in Mr. Hunt's former writings (and this is a great compliment) is "The Indicator." Its papers have the same cordial mixture of fact and imagination."—EXAMINER.

"Mr. Leigh Hunt never writes otherwise than cheerfully. He will have sunshine—will promote gay spirits—will uphold liberal truths; blithely, yet earnestly. He is the Prince of Parlour-window writers."—ATHENÆUM.

"A book for a parlour-window, for a summer's eve, for a warm fireside, for a half-hour's leisure, for a whole day's luxury—in any and every possible shape a charming companion."—WESTMINSTER REVIEW.
