

CHAPTER XVIII.

American men and women—Fireflies—Profusion of insect life—Grasshoppers—Frederick and David leave Canada—Soap-making—Home-made candles—Recipe for washing quickly—Writing letters—The parson for driver

pp. 299—313

CHAPTER XIX.

Americanisms—Our poultry—The wasps—Their nests—"Bob's" skill in killing them—Raccoons—A hunt—Raccoon cake—The town of Busaco—Summer "sailing"—Boy drowned—French settlers pp. 314—327

CHAPTER XX.

Apple-bees—Orchards—Gorgeous display of apple-blossom—A meeting in the woods—The ague—Wild parsnips—Man lost in the woods pp. 328—340

CHAPTER XXI.

A tornado—Bats—Deserted lots—American inquisitiveness—An election agent pp. 341—349

CHAPTER XXII.

A journey to Niagara—River St. Clair—Detroit—A slave's escape—An American steamer—Description of the Falls of Niagara—Fearful catastrophe pp. 350—366

CHAPTER XXIII.

The suspension-bridge at Niagara—The whirlpool—The battle of Lundy's Lane—Brock's monument—A soldier nearly drowned pp. 367—374