His Worship Mayor Church resided and among the prominent sts were, His Grace Archbishop Matheson, primate of all Canada, capacity with many of Toronto's disceneral Sir William Otter, Premier Hearst, Hon. W. J. Hanna, Hon. T. W. McGarry, Hon. A. E. Kemp, R. B. Bennett, M.P. for Calgary; N. W. three hearty cheers for Sir Robert through M.P. and General Learner. Bennett, M.P. for Calgary; N. W. Rowell, K.C., and General Lessard.

Mayor Church in proposing his health paid an eloquent tribute to the prime minister. The people of Toronto, he said, had always been fond of Sir Robert Borden. They admired his affability, his uniform courtesy, his splendid attainments and his sterling splendid attainments and his sterling to the pre-eminent services he is rendering to the country in the dissplendid attainments and his sterling patriotism. They deeply appreciated what he and his government had done since the outbreak of the war for Canada and the empire. Sir Robert, the mayor continued, had been in advance of public opinion upon imperial questions both in peace and war and therehons both in peace and war and therefore was qualified to be the standard bearer of the Canadian people. He hoped that the prime minister and Lady Borden might be spared for many years to serve the people of Canada.

The 200 guests rose as a man and gave three hearty cheers for the dis-"For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and there was another outbreak of cheering before the prime minister could

He was glad that the good news of the victory at the front had synchronized with his visit to Toronto. Toronto had set a marvelous example to all Canin her generous contributions of men and money.
"As to the issue of this war," the prime minister continued, "let me tell rou that I have no misgiving. I bring back from overseas no feeling of despondency, no message of gloom. Our empire alone has the men and the resources to achieve an honorable, a lasting and a victorious peace. When the war broke out, however, it found the mother country and the dominions overseas to some extent unprepared.

I do not say this by way of criticism, but I think it may be frankly admitted that we did not appreciate the mitude of the contest before us. We do appreciate it now, but we are not a whit dismayed. (Applause.)

"Our lack of preparedness as com-pared with the preparedness of the pared with the preparedness of the adians will be greater than they have nemy," said the prime minister, "may been in the past." be attributed in part to our democratic form of government. Democracy in this war is being subjected to a strain to the like of which it has never before been subjected, but I believe de-mocracy is making good." (Applause.)

Canadian Gallantry.

Referring to the gallantry of the Canadian volunteers, Sir Robert said: "With pride and wonder we con template their achievements. They were men taken from civil life and with little military training and experience of war as war is today Yet we know what they accomplished. They saved the day for the allies at Ypres, and caused every Canadian heart to thrill with pride. (Applause.) They held their ground under an attack so severe, so overwhelming and sinister that I doubt if any troops in the world were ever subjected to a the world were ever subjected to a greater and more trying strain. (Applause.) Let me say to you that having talked with our soldiers in the trenches, with our wounded soldiers hospitals and convalescent homes, having talked with men from Britain, Australia, New Zealand and Canada, bring back to you the message that the men at the front are determined to ther the present government nor any other government could have accomplished all that has been accomplished since the outbreak of the war without the hearty and the united support of the Canadian people. The splendid unity of our people, their spirit of self-sacrifice, their desire to help, their devotion to high ideals, con-stantly and everywhere displayed, since the beginning of this war, can-not but leave a deer and lasting impression upon future generations and upon the history of Ganada."

MUSIC AND MEALS.

Toronto's only cabaret retaurant, the Cafe Royal, 14 King street east, is steadily progressing in public favor. This is not surprising, looking to the combination of choice food with attentive experience. Attractive tentive, expert service. Attractive surroundings and reasonable prices cannot but gain public favor, and when in addition there is given really artistic music and dancing, what more can be wished to make meals desirable and enjoyable? The Cafe Royal has already become noted for the exhibition dancing of Evelyne Hill and Frank Barton of New York, the music of the Argentine String Orchestra and the singing of the Royal Quintet.

After Much Debating, It Was Decided to Wait Six Months.

A meeting of the ratepayers and school trustees of school section No. 15, Fairbank, was held last evening in Vaughan Road Public School for the purpose of considering the proposal of the board of the present time, and referred to the pleasure it gave him, when at the outbreak of war, he was enabled to send word to the mother country that Canada would, stand shoulder to shoulder with the empire.

"The cause of the war is a just one." declared Sir Robert, "ft is the cause of democracy. the cause of civilization, the cause of the empire itself, and I have no doubt whatever that our cause in the end will prevail." In referring to the victories announced in yesterday's papers the premier declared that we are no longer in the shadow of reverses, but in the sunshine of success.

The work of Toronto and the Dominion in so generously meeting the demands of the war, not only in men but in all the other necessaries, was but hald the back that the state of the shadow of reverses, was but in the sunshine of success.

About 500 members of the Canadian Women's Home Guard met at Dundurn Heights, West St. Clair avenue, last evening for drill instructions under the direction of Col. Galloway.

At the conclusion of the proceedings Col. Galloway addressed the guardswomen and said that the grounds of Dundurn Heights were inadequate for drill purposes owing to the increasing number of recruits and suggested that Cottingham Square be used in future.

The matter was put to a vote of the members who were unanimous regarding the new site for future drilling.

The members will meet on Thursday evening next at Cottingham Square, wearing their uniforms for drilling and recruiting. It was also decided at last night's meeting that Col. Galloway is the military instructor of the Home Guards and that he is also chairman of the executive committee.

The Billeting Plan.

Ph discussing the question of billeting troops in Toronto this winter a prominent military officer said it might be tried "as an experiment" with one or two regiments to see how it worked. He pointed out that precedent and law were plain on the point that it must only be resorted to when there is to other way of quartering the troops. To billet a thousand men at 75 cents per day would cost $22,500 per month, the total for the six months amounting to $135,000.

ARDMORE, Okla., Sept. 27.—At least 31 were killed, and it is estimated 200 others were injured seriously here this afternoon, when a 250-barrel tank of car gasoline exploded in the heart of the business district. The force of the explosion shook down many buildings and threw burning gasoline in every direction. A few minutes after Ardmore was at the mercy of scores of fires.

At .8 o'clock the fires were under control and the city was under martial law. Not a building on Main street escaped damage, and all school buildings, business houses and residences within 12 blocks of the business district bear evidence of the explosion.

Two workmen were repairing the tank, when one of them struck it with a hammer. A spark from the blow ignited the fumes escaping thru a small leak. There was a terrific explosion, followed by many smaller ones. The workmen were blown to pieces. Most of the other casualties were caused by falling buildings. total for the six months amounted to $135,000.

The recruiting depot states that latest orders place the minimum height for all corps at five feet two inches, except artillery, and five feet four inches for the artillery. For men between the ages or 18 and 30 years the minimum chest measurement is 33 inches, and for men over 30 years the minimum has been placed at 34 inches.

Over 70 recruits are still wanted for the Royal Canadian Dragoons and more than 100 for the coast guard defence service in the artillery at Halifax. Artillery recruits should apply at the 9th Battery rooms at the east end of the armories. The Pioneers' Battalion is still in need of more men who have worked at the trades.
