

Master, here is a Tribunal, viz. The High Court of Admiralty, where they have a Right to apply, and make their Complaints ; and they may be previously assured, that, in such Case, impartial Justice will be administred to them ; the Juridical Proceedings of the said Court being, and having ever been, unimpeach'd and irreproachable, as appears by numerous Examples of Neutral Vessels illegally taken, having been restored, with Costs and Damages, to the Proprietors.

This is the Answer the King has ordered me to give, upon the Contents of your said Memorial ; and His Majesty cannot but flatter himself, that, in Consequence hereof, the King your Master's Desire will be fully answered, with relation to the Point in Question ; and of which His Majesty is the more assured, as he is persuaded that the King of Prussia would not require any Thing, but what is Equitable.

I am,

With much Consideration,

S I R,

Your most obedient,

And most humble Servant,

CHESTERFIELD.
