

internal traitors who aim at the dissolution of the Empire.

4th—And would render the nation independent of external rivals or foes.—The route has an abundance of coal at each end and the centre, with open harbors the year round on either ocean.

HOMER, ONT., }
Sept. 23rd, 1874. }

CORRECTIONS.

"White wood" should be "white mud."
"1,000,000" square miles should be "700,000 miles."

REFERENCES.

For history and details, see Sir Alex. McKenzie's "North West Travels"; Simpson's "North West Travels"; Butler's "Lone Land"; Spence "On Manitoba"; Grant's "Ocean to Ocean"; and Dennis' Reports.

st to the
le of the ested, and extended
t practic-
the west
Atlantic
to the east and thence ea to the
and from Calcutta,
are nation-
many im-
0,000,000
and centre
and cheap-
connect by
of China
of industri-
ial metrop-
e Empire,
travel of a ched every
e to secure
n times.
ual expendi-
s would be riching the h which it
r the settle-
e now over Empire, the occupied dis-
n which the rtizans and
ld come, and
a market for
y. and thus trious classes
abroad an-l which the
the hopes of