

- mosa, 135; among Pe-po-hoans, 215; location of missions in North Formosa, 335.
 Missionary, to be one the passion of the author's life, 16.
 Missionary experiences, 150.
 Mollusca, Formosan, 89.
 Money, thirst for, among the Chinese, 164.
 Moore, Rev. Dr., of Ottawa, 25.
 Morals and manners among the Lam-si-hoan, 247.
 Mountain forests, savage life in, 251.
 Mountain savages, 251.
 Museum at Tamsui, 288.
 Musical instruments of the savages, 257.
 Native Bible-women, 302.
 Native ministry, need of, 44, 285; cost of maintenance of, 286.
 Native preacher, the first, and his church, 142.
 Native workers for native women, 297.
 Nature-worship among the savages, 258.
 Newmarket (Ontario), missionary labors at, 19.
 Night in an ox-stable, a, 221.
 "No room here for barbarians," 221.
 Non-failure of missions, 338.
 Official corruption, 105.
 Opium-smoking habit overcome, 179.
 Oppression of Christians, 110.
 Ordinances and sacraments, 235.
 Oxford College, Tamsui, 194, 224, 230, 282, 291, 304, 305, 320, 333, 335.
 Pak-tau, church at, 223; sulphur-springs at, 223; prosperous mission at, 224.
 Patience needful in the work of conversion, 236.
 Pat-li-hun, chapel at, 161.
 Pe-po-hoan, village of, 36; mission work among the, 215; encouraging nature of, 215, 219; English Presbyterian work among the, 327.
 Pe-po-hoans, the, 37, 205; conquered aborigines, 205; their home in the Kap-tsu-lan plain (North Formosa), 205; social characteristics, 206; their cruelty, 207; nature-worshippers, 207; Chinese idolatry forced upon them by their conquerors, 208; murderous propensities of, 216, 276.
 "Perils of waters," in, 173.
 Persecutions suffered by native converts, 192.
 Phoa-po-o, gospel preached at, 236.
 Phosphorescent glory of Formosan waters, 229.
 Pinnacle Island, 184.
 Plant life in Formosa, 55.
 Po-sia plain, 37.
 Pottery, manufacture of, by the Lam-si-hoan, 244.
 "Power of God unto salvation" manifested, 219.
 Preachers, native, 336.
 Presbyterian Church in Canada, Tamsui mission of, 101, 282.
 Presbyterian (English) missions in South Formosa, 324.
 Presbyterianism in Canada, consolidation of, 24.
 Princeton Theological Seminary, author a graduate of, 19.
 Railway operations in Formosa, 174.
 Rattan industry, 270.
 Refused accommodation, 238.
 Religious life among Chinese in Formosa, 125.
 Reptiles of Formosa, 81.
 Retrospect and prospect, 330.
 Rice, the staple food, 246.
 Rice-farming, 209.
 Rickshaw, locomotion by, 174.
 Ringer, Dr., of Tamsui, 319, 331.
 Ritchie, Rev. Hugh, of South Formosa, 326.
 Ross, Rev. John, of Brucefield, Canada, 292.