	Page	CONTENTS.	xiii
ny		To find the price of more it	Page
	164	nation
ent		To find the price of one binhand	212
	166	To find the price of one higher denomination,	213
	166	mination
ui-		Given the price of one denomination to a sur-	213
	167	of any number of another
ıl,	170	When the price of any denomination is the lit	214
ıl,	170	part of a shilling to find the price of
е,	171	ber of that denomination
8		When the price of any denomination is the li	215
•	172	quot part of a nound, to find the price of any
8-		number of that denomination	015
•	173	When the complement of the price, but not the	215
•	176	price itself, is the aliquot part or parts of a
•	177	pound or shilling.	010
•	179	When neither the price nor its complement is the	210
4	181	aliquot part or parts of a pound or shilling	017
1		When the price of each article is an even number	417
•	184	of shillings, to find the price of a number of
•	184	articies,	218
	184	When the price is an odd number and less	10
•	185	than 20,	219
	185 •	To find the price of a quantity represented by a
	-	mixed number,	220
	190	Given the price per cwt., to find that of cwt.
	100	qrs., &c.,	221
	192	Given the price per pound, to find that of cwt.
	705	qrs., &c.,	222
	195	Given the price per pound, to find that of a ton,	223
	202	Given the price per ounce, to find that of ounces,
	204	pennyweights, &c.,	223
		Given the price per yard, to find that of yards,
		qrs., &c.,	225
-	203	10 hnd the price of acres, roods, &c.,	226
-	209	Given the price per quart, to find that of a hoge-
	1	liead,	226
2	213	Given the price per quart, to find that of a tun,	227