LIFE SAVING SERVICE.

Report of U.S. Superintendent Shows Forty-Four Lives Lost.

Washington, Nov. 19.—The general superintendent of the Life-Saving Service has rendered his report for the year 1902. It shows most gratifying results. The number of lives lost during the year was 44, the number of rescues 1,001, yet the number of lives lost from documented vessels—those of tonnage burden or over—was only 19, while six were lost from smaller craft, sailboats, rowboats, etc., making a total of 25, a number far below the average.

The amount of property imperilled was greatly in excess of that of any previous year in the history of the service, owing to the unusual number of vessels involved. No less than 54 vessels of over 100 tons burden were wrecked during the year, and the loss of property, however, was comparatively light.

The number of disasters documented vessels was 355. On board these vessels were 3,424 passengers, of whom 1,279 were rescued. The value of the property saved was $9,233,830, and that of the cargoes $5,131,380, making a total of $14,365,210. Of this amount, $12,123,226 was saved, and $2,241,984 lost.

In addition to the foregoing, there were 361 casualties to undocumented vessels, of whom 179 were rescued. The value of property involved in these instances is estimated at $174,120, of which $167,575 were saved, and $6,545 lost.

One of the objects of the operations is to induce the Colombian government to send arms and ammunition to his men. Matos also relies on his wealthy friends in this shape. The city seems to have the right to compel the company to do their business with the property, and he will cost much more than the repairing of the road.

The company will pay their share of improving the Espinade street, the city will without objection pay the balance. It is loaded on it. Before an agreement is reached, however, there will be no more business with the city and the Grand Trunk.

Court of Revision Takes Up About 250 Appeals, Get Half Thru the Lists.

Meeting of Ratepayers of No. 11 Polling Division Addressed by Messrs Maclean and Syme.

Toronto, Junction, Nov. 19.—You might as well chase a flea as chase a boarder in Toronto Junction. This very terse remark from Judge Morgan at the Court of Revision to-night aptly illustrates how difficult it is to get a man with an indefinite home upon the voters' list. So many boarders have changed their boarding houses during the time they are on the polling day many of them will wonder why they have not a vote. Up to last night 225 changes on the voters' list had been made, and about 250 appeals were taken up to-night, making about 100 more changes. A little over half the appeals have now been reached.
