MONDAY MORNING THE TORONTO WORLD JULY 24 1905 ers and members of the Balmy Beach Baseball Club went up to Colling wood on Saturday with the old boys of the town. They were met at the station by an immense crowd of citizens. After lunch they were driven to the exhibi-tion grounds, where, before more than 1000 spectators, the Balmy Beach Base-ball Club defeated the local team by a score of 18 to 8. The feature of the game was the batting of John Ross, Parkinson, Nichol and McKay for the winners. Mr. Y. willingly agreed that the children of the m.n" riage should be brought up Catholics, a dispensation was applied for and ob-tained and the wedding took place with great splendor in Washington. Some years later the domestic life of Mr. and Mrs. Y. was shattered; an ap-peal was made to the civil courts for a divorce, and a decree was issued dis-solving the marriage and giving both parties liberty to contract a new mar-riage. Mrs. Y., being a Catholic, ve. y properly regarded herself as still bound in the bond of wedlock until she lea n-ed one day that Mr. Y. had never been really baptized. She hunted up the evidence of this, and the evidence was conclusive. She then proceeded to ar-gue that as she had been married to Mr. Y. on the supposition that he was a baptized Protestant, and as the dis-pensation from the impediment "mixtae-religionis," supposed to have been g ant-ed one ther marriage must have been null from the beginning.
