isfaction, and then locked it away until the evening hours secured him from business interruption. Then he went to his grandchild. He found her sitting quietly among the cushions of a low couch. It seemed as if Miriam's thoughts were generally sufficient for her pleasure, for she was rarely busy. She had always time to sit and talk, to see her thus-beautiful and calm, with small hands dropped or folded pressively still, and she could not help and eyes half shut, and mouth closed, remembering the days when it had but ready to smile and dimple if he decided to speak to her.

like to break the spell of her restful beauty. Nor did he until his pipe was fully over the notes in his daybook. Then he said, in slow, even tones: "My child, listen to me. This summer my young kinsman, Judah Belasco, will come here. He comes to marry you. You will be a happy wife, my dear. He has moneys, and he has the power to make moneys; and he is a good young man. I have been cautious concerning that, my dear."

There was a long pause. He did not hurry her, but sat patiently waiting, with his eyes fixed upon the book in his hand. "I do not want to marry, grand-father. I am so young. I do not know

You shall have time, my dear. It is part of the agreement that he shall now live in New York. He is a rich young man, my dear. THE WEAK THE DISEASED Made Strong and Healthy Through Dr. Radway's

SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT

Every drop of the Sarsaparillian Resolvent communicates through the blood, sweat, urine and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life; for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, consumption, syphilis, uncured and badly treated venereal in its many forms (send ten cents for illustrated book, "Radway on Venereal"), glandular diseases, ulcers in the throat, mouth, tumors, nodes in the glands and other parts of the system, sore eyes, strumous discharges from the ears, and the worst forms of skin diséases, eruptions, fever sores, scald head, ringworm, sait rheum, erysipelas, acne, black spots in the flesh, tumors, cancerous growths, female complaints, and all weakening and painful discharges, night sweats, nocturnal losses, and all wastes of the life principle are within the curative range of this Wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of diseases its potent power to cure them. If the patient, daity becoming reduced by the wastes and decompositions that are continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes and decompositions that are continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes and decompositions that are continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes and erepairs the same with new material made from healthy blood, and this the Sarsaparillian will and does secure, a cure is certain, for when once this remedy commences its work of purification and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better, and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving and flesh and weight increasing.
