GUN LAYER KILLED, TOC WORKERS OUT TODAY, TOO

Will Be More Than Realized.

The Y.M.C.A. campaign for $20,000 lines by a German aviator announces for overseas work was not completed that Flight-Lieut, G. R. S. Fleming, vesterday, and as a result the teams son of Atwell Fleming, of Toronto, for- will be at work today. The sum of

The workers assembled at the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium last evening to hear the returns, and the committee was most enthusiastic.

Reach Objective.

"We have done well, but we will do better," said George M. Reid. "We can reach our objective, I am sure, when we get the returns in. I am satisfied, perfectly satisfied. Those who do not contribute are to be pitied, and those who did are to be greatly praised."

praised." "We will get what we want," said John S. Moore, the honorary treasurer. "The results are most gratifying." A. E. Silverwood, the chairman of the organization committee, was elated, and declared that the showing was distinctly creditable to London.

The captains reported, but all had the one complaint, that it was impossible to reach all the men on the lists. There was considerable duplicating, but on the whole the work was well handled.

A meeting will be held in the Y. M. C. A. this evening to get the final results.

FESTIVAL CHORUS BY SCHOOL CHILDREN DELIGHTED AUDIENCE

Rounds of Applause Greeted Artistic Singing of Pupils.

The first of the fifth biennial concerts of the London public school festival chorus, held last evening in the Grand Opera House, took the form of a festival of spring and flowers, and proved a delightful spectacular as well as musical event. as musical event,
Proud parents, teachers and friends of the school children, and less fortunate people, who, lacking a personal nterest, attended the feast of art for art's sake, crowded the building to its expacity. Under the circumstances, generous applause was to be expected.
