Topics of Today.

There is no foundation for the statement that Mr. Brunau, M. P. for Richieu, has resigned.Rev. Dr. J. C. Smith, pastor of St.
Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Guelph, is seriously ill.The Dominion Government denies most emphatically the report that England has agreed to a delimitation of Alaskan boundaries adverse to the Canadian contention.Henri Royal, son of ex-Lieut.-Gov.
Royal, has joined the ranks of French Liberals in St. Boniface, Man. This is an illustration of the drift Liberawards of many young men whose fathers were Conservatives in the old days when Sir John Macdonald was the magnet.Hon. Mr. Ewart, who was elected by acclamation as M. P. for Prescott, made a rousing address in favor of the Liberal candidate at the Russell nominations. Mr. Ewart was the M. P. who was represented by Conservative newspapers as "almost certain" to support Mr. Whitney.Yukon is still a field for the new company project. Notice is given in the Gazette of applications to incorporate a company to light the city of Dawson by electricity and run electric cars.To incorporate a company to maintain an electric telegraph cable and telephone line between Dawson City and Victoria, by way of Teslin Lake and Telegraph Creek.Officers, non-coms, and men of the Thirty-first Grey, Thirty-seventh Hampshire, Thirty-eighth Durham Rifles, Thirty-ninth Northolt, and Seventy-seventh Battalion, will hereafter attend for instruction at the School of Infantry in London, instead of Toronto.
Londoners will heartily endorse this recognition by the Government of London's position as a military center.

LATEST WEATHER FORECAST

Toronto, March 12.—10 a.m.—Probabilities for the lower lakes region for the next 24 hours. Cloudy, with light drizzle of sleet or rain; a little lower temperature.

Around the City

—Mr. George C. Gibbons, Q.C., has been at Ottawa on important cases before the supreme court of Canada.—All who would enjoy an evening with Dickens will be able to obtain Friday evening next.—The gongs ordered by the council for the city fire bells arrived yesterday, and are considered excellent. They will be rung for the first time later than the city fire bells.—Mr. Sol. Cutter, one of the lecturers of stars among temperance lecturers, will speak at the men's meeting at the Auditorium tomorrow evening. A solo will be given by Miss Inez Smith.—John McKellar, a prominent resident of Ingersoll, died yesterday, aged 57. Besides a widow, he leaves two daughters, Jennie Campbell and Helen Duncan, and one son, —Mr. A. G. Chisholm has made application to the surrogate court on behalf of the widow of the late Arthur Kingsmill of this city, by the late Arthur Kingsmill, to distribute her husband's estate, announcing in all $4,000.—Mr. McKellar, solicitor, has filed an application for surrogate court for letters patent for the distribution of the estate of the late Arthur Kingsmill of this city, by the late Arthur Kingsmill, to distribute her husband's estate, announcing in all $4,000.—Rev. J. A. Macdonald, editor of the Westminster, was in the city today en route to East Willow, where he will participate in the reopening service at Beachwood Church. Mr. Macdonald has been very busy in East Willow, and has happy recollections of boyhood enjoyments there.—Many friends of the family will regret the death of Nelson Haigh, engineer at the G. T. R. roundhouse, after a short illness. A wife and young children are left to mourn the loss of a loving father.
The funeral will take place Monday.—A dispatch from our Toronto correspondent this afternoon says: Col. says, M.P.E., who has been here for the construction of the new Normal School, has gone to Ottawa to press the matter of the necessity of erecting a new armory for the volunteer force of Canada.—The Westminster of this week contains an excellent sketch of the First Presbyterian Church of this city, together with biographical notes on the past and present pastors (Revs. Drs.
Thorne and Mr. Robert Reid, Mr. Adam Thorne, and Mr. Barron, organist. The sketch is by Rev. Douglas Fraser, M.A.—Another popular member of the G.
T. R. force of dispatchers here has been transferred to another point on the road. This time it is Mr. William White who has left. Yesterday morning he assumed his new duties on the International bridge division, Niagara Falls. Mr. White has a wide circle of friends in London who will deplore his removal from the city.—Mrs. Rorer lectured on "The Afternoon Tea" to a large audience in the Auditorium yesterday afternoon, and in the evening gave an extra lesson on "Soups." The attendance in the evening was particularly large, despite the unfavorable weather. Mrs. Rorer concluded her series of lessons on the subject of "Cookery" and has succeeded beyond expectation. Mrs.
Rorer has made a lasting impression.—An interesting debate was held at St. Andrew's Church lecture room last evening between spokesmen of the St. Andrew's Literary Society and the Sextet Club. The subject was "Resolved, that independence is preferable to adherence to a political party." The affirmative was argued by Walter Gunn and Charles Smith, of St. Andrew's, and the negative by Jack Langridge and W. Anderson, of the Sextet. The negative won.—The funeral of the late W. H.
Stacey, rector of Acton, was conducted under the auspices of the Woodmen of the World, the service of the order being read by Acting Consul-Commander D. Henderson, M.P. A prominent Woodman was present, among thembeing Dr. Harrison, grand physician, of Toronto; J. E. Hill, chairman board of managers, St. Thomas; W. H.
Greaves, head organizer, Toronto; W.
McMahon, clerk Toronto Camp, Toronto.
The deceased was grand officer of the order. Rev. Richard Hobbs, of London, assisted in the religious services.
