tugs took part in the water parade lead by the Government fishery steamer Becancour of Port Dover commanded by Captain Paul Robinson. It was on this vessel that judging for the best decorated tugs was made, the committee deciding on the tug Wilma owned by McDonald & Tongue of Port Stanley for first prize, while the tugs Morgan and Donald Mac captured second and third respectively. The judges were A. Brown, president of the Lake-Erle Fishermen's Association; C. Hamlyn, representing the Canadian Fisherman, a Montreal publication, and ond and third respectively. The Judges
