OSTEOPATHIC CLINICS FOR CHILDREN - ST. GEORG Government Asks Court For Trustee To Sell Stockyards of Packers.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 .- The United States Government today petitioned the District of Columbia supreme court to appoint a trustee to take possession of and sell the stockyard properties of the 'big five' packers.

The petition, which accompanied the Government's objection to the various plans of the packers for disposing of those properties, declared that the packers had failed to present a suitable plan to the court, although nine months had elapsed since they undertook to formulate such a plan.

GUELPH, Nov. 30.—The new $60,000 agricultural building, the latest addition to many fine educational structures at the Ontario College will be formally opened by Premier Drury Wednesday at the first session of the three day's convention of the Ontario Beekeepers' Association. The building is one of the most modern in America, if not in the world, and the convention will be the most important ever held by the association. Among the speakers in addition to Premier Drury, are J. J. Morrison, U. F. O. secretary; G. S. Demuith, Medina, Ohio; F. W. Krouse, Guelph; Dr. E. F. Phillips, U. S. apiarist, Washington; Russell H. Kelty, deputy apiarist of Michigan College, and F. W. L. Sladden, Dominion Apiarist, Ottawa.

Cattle Coming in.

With the arrival of 25 head of dairy cattle today the influx of live stock to the Winter Fair has commenced, and from now on for the balance of this week there will be a steady stream of exhibits pouring into the big buildings. Among the first of the dairy cattle to reach Guelph were the Ayrshire exhibits of Harmon McPherson of Norwich, and H. C. Hammill of Markham, and some of the famous cattle from the Jersey herds of James and Alfre'l Bagg of Edgeley. The latter have a dairy test winner to their credit in the last two years, and McPherson's Ayrshires are always up in the money. Two Hackneys from Cascater's Weston string also arrived during the night and were the first horses to put in an appearance. Supts. Saunders and Leitch have all ar angements just about completed and had to do a lot of close figuring in order to find room for the big entry list.

Big Poultry Show.

The escalator, which is used for transferring the poultry from the ground floor to the poultry department, is being erected today and the prize birds in thousands will arrive tomorrow. Some of the entries in the seed department are already in the building and this will be an important feature of the fair this year, particularly in view of the fact that seed will be here from both New Bruhswick and British Columbia, in a
