"The Talk of New York."

"The Talk of New York" comes to the Princess Theatre for a week's engagement, commencing Monday night, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday. This company played a week's engagement last year and was one of the big off the entire season. It goes without saying that "The Talk of New York" is another of those remarkable and the composition, "The Motor Girl," is enjoying a long run at the Lyric Theatre, New York, while "The Gay Musician," another of his big successes, is now in its second season, and will be at the Grand, all of Fair week.

Victor Moore had played the char-acter of "Kid Burns," the good-naturwas loyal to those who tried to transform him from a race-track tout into a youth of polish and refinement, and it was in the New Rochelle mansion which, save for his honesty, would have been lost to the rightful heir, that Cober lost to the rightful heir, that Cober lost to the previous play. The left him in the previous play. The George M. Cohan musical numbers are as many and as varied as ever and are as many and as varied as ever and are said to include the best inspirations that have come from the pen of this talented young composer. The very titles suggest a novel lyric in each case. They are: "Burning Up the Roule-vard," "Follow Your Uncle Dudley," "Put a Little Bet Down for Me," "When a Fellow's on the Level with a Girl That's on the Square," "Mr. Burns of New Rochelle," "When We Are MA - Double-R-I-E-D," Busy Little Broadway," "Claremont," "Drink with Me," "Under Any Old Flag at All," "Gee, Ain't I Glad I'm Home Again?" "Gee, Ain't I Glad I'm Home Again?" and the song that has become the greatest rage to the music-loving pub-lic in many years, "That's Some Love."

"The Gay Musician." Of the many musical attractions presented in this city last season, the most popular was the charming comic opera, "The Gay Musician," by Julian Edwards and given here by Manager John P. Slocum's company. Manager Slocum has been induced to bring his slocum has been induced to this might hig company to Canada this season, and "The Gay Musician" will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House for the fair week, commencing next Monday evening.
