Toronto Junction, Sept. 1.-At the colice court this morning, Robert Mc-Master was charged by Police Magistrate Ellis with assaulting Thomas Armstrong with intent to do grievous oodily harm. Armstrong stated that he was wheeling on Brandon-avenue when McMaster caught hold of his wheel, threw him into the ditch and kicked him. Two women gave evidence to the effect that the men were fighting and Dr. McNamara said that when h was called both of Armstrong's eyes were swollen so that he could not open them. McMaster, in his defence, stated that he met Armstrong in the Minto House, and he said: "I can knock your block off." He was committed for

Mrs. Raymond of York Township was charged at the police court this morning with allowing her cattle to run at large. Mr. Mason told of the unnatural tastes of Mrs. Raymond's cattle. They are said to have broken into his house and eaten three curtains, a baby's dress and the baby's bibs, as well as other articles of clothing belonging to the baby. One dollar and costs was the fine.

There died at the Western Hospital last night, Mrs. Luella Rawson of 55 Hoskin-avenue. Deceased was married about five months ago and about four weeks ago was taken ill with typhoid fever.
