

and deal with this great Roman Catholic question is with an open Bible, proclaiming the gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. The Grande Ligne Mission is the one factor in Canada and New England to do this work."

Telegram from Rev. EDWARD JUDSON, D.D., New York :—"Very sorry cannot be with you. The Lord bless your noble cause."

From Rev. R. S. MACARTHUR, D.D., New York :—"I much regret that I cannot be with you; perhaps at some other time during the year, I may be able to meet with the brethren. I hope also to take another collection for the work during the Spring months. I see more and more the need of this work, as I watch the drift of the population from Canada to the New England States."

From Rev. NATHAN E. WOOD, D.D., Brooklyn, N. Y. :—"It will be impossible for me to get away from my work to be present at your Annual meeting. It would give me great pleasure to meet again the brethren at Grande Ligne. The impressions left from my visit there in October last are very delightful."

From Rev. A. P. MCDIARMID, Brooklyn, N. Y. :—"I wish very much it were possible for me to be with you. I have met nowhere more loyal and earnest friends of Grande Ligne than in the Woman's Auxilliary of Brooklyn. The Mission owes much to Mrs. Burke and the noble band of women she leads."

From Mr. D. E. THOMSON, Q.C., Toronto :—"I regret that my engagements are such that I find it quite impossible to attend your meeting. I wish you every success in the work."

From Mr. D. W. KARN, Woodstock, Ont. :—"The work at Grande Ligne is most important, and is deserving of our united sympathy and help. It would give me very great pleasure to be with you on the 19th."

From Rev. ELMORE HARRIS, Toronto :—"Sorry that I cannot be with you on the 19th. Let us have great faith in the Divine method of saving men through the power of the Holy Spirit working by the presentation of God's matchless love in Christ. Let us go forward and be aggressive."

From Prof. THEODORE H. RAND, D.C.L. McMaster University, Toronto, Ont. :—"It does not seem possible for me to attend the Annual meeting, though I should like much to do so. The work is surely enlisting a wider interest than for years past, and it seems a time to encourage a liberal and bold policy. The brethren in the Faculties desire me to express their growing interest in the work of the Mission, and their desire to co-operate in every practicable way in furthering its interests."

From Rev. E. M. SAUNDERS, D.D., Halifax :—"I very much regret that I shall not be able to attend the meeting. The Society may rest in the assurance that God's presence is always with them while engaged in this great work. You can say "hitherto hath the Lord helped us," and the blessings of the past are a pledge of what God has yet in store for you."

From Rev. E. J. STOBO, Quebec :—"I am very sorry that I cannot be with you on the 19th. I am cheered to know that the interest in the work of French evangelization is becoming more general, East and West, and the "Grande Ligne Mission" is coming into closer touch with the great Baptist Body of this continent."

Telegram from Mr. CHARLES RAYMOND, Guelph :—"Feel deeply interested in Grande Ligne work. Hope to be with you at some future time."

From Mr. GEORGE FOSTER, Brantford, Ont. :—"I shall not be able to attend the meeting, but I shall be with you in my sympathies and prayers. The Grande Ligne Mission, I consider one of the best in the country. I cannot give any advice regarding management, being so far away, and so little acquainted with the arrangement of your affairs, but I can send to all connected with the Mission, an expression of my warmest Christian fellowship in the work."
