

The Bishop of Fredericton.

11. The Right Reverend John Medley and his successor and successors in the office of Bishop of Fredericton, in whatever manner appointed or elected, so long as he or they, and each of them, be duly and lawfully appointed or elected, and be also duly and in accordance with the rites of the said Church of England, or some Church in communion therewith, consecrated Bishop of the said See of Fredericton, shall be and he is, and they are hereby declared to be a body corporate in deed and in name, under the name and title of "The Lord Bishop of Fredericton," during the incumbency of the present Bishop, and under the name and title of "The Bishop of Fredericton" upon the appointment of his successor, but notwithstanding such change of name, such corporation shall in all other respects continue the same, and shall have all the powers made incident to a corporation in this Province by Act of Assembly or otherwise.

See 38 Vic, c 43,
s 1, A D 1875.

12. All lands, tenements and hereditaments, and all moneys and securities for money, real or personal, and all other property and estate whatsoever, which now are, or at the time of the death of the said Right Reverend John Medley may be vested in him as such Bishop of Fredericton, shall be deemed and treated as if vested in him in his corporate capacity, under and by virtue of this Act, and shall continue and go to and be vested in his successor and successors in office, elected and consecrated as aforesaid.

38 Vic, c 43, s 2.

13. And whereas the late Sarah Catherine DeWolfe did, by a Codicil to her last Will and Testament, dated the thirtieth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty, which said Will and Testament and Codicil, having been duly admitted to Probate, are registered in the Records of the City and County of Saint John, inter alia, devise certain lands and real estate to "The Lord Bishop of Fredericton, or other ecclesiastical head of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese, and his successors forever," upon certain trusts therein contained, subject to a life estate in her husband, Edward DeWolfe, and the said Edward DeWolfe hath lately departed this life; Be it therefore enacted, that the said lands and real estate, so devised as aforesaid, and the title thereto, are hereby declared to vest and be vested in the Lord Bishop of Fredericton aforesaid, and his successor and successors in office, subject nevertheless to the trusts declared in and by the said last Will and Testament; and the said Lord Bishop of Fredericton, or the 38 Vic, c 43, s 2.