HIGH RECORD FOR WHEAT IN THE TORONTO MARKET

Barley and Oats Also Soaring--The Extreme Prices Caused by Crop Shortage-Keen Competition for the Wheat Supply.

(Toronto World, Tuesday) Not since the Dingley Act came into ef-Wheat, per bushel $1.12 fect has there been any possibility of ex-porting barley to the neighboring repub-

At the Chicago market yesterday, May heat sold as high as $1,12 5-8 a bushel; at Minneapolis, $1.16 1-4$, and at Duluth, $1.17 1-4$. At Winnipeg, May wheat hovered around $1.17, and at Toronto cash wheat was $1.12 Barley, oats and corn are all ruling at similar high prices, and One talling at similar high prices, and One tarrio farmers are not offering supplies freely because of the belief that the advances will still go further.

CROP SHORTAGE.

The extreme prices are caused by a crop shortage, which is general. In India and Australia, drought is reported to be working injury to the crops. The European crops were marred by wet weather. The Argentine crop were marred by wet weather.

wery many years. The advance is peculiar in that most commodities are receding in that the Argentine crop is up to the averations, which a few months ago were between 80c. and 90c a bushel are now the showe $1.10; oats, which were about 40c. Among Toronto grain men the only reason given for the rise is a crop shortage, not only in Ontario or in the, Dominion, but practically in all the grain producing fountries.
