Note :—The following is the letter referred to above :

MONTREAL, 6th Dec., 1882.

MAJOR E. W. MUDGE,
Secretary P. Q. R. A.,
Montreal.

SIR,—Referring to the vote of money for my expenses in attending to the necessary business of the P. Q. R. A., at Ottawa, I would say, that I have willingly served this Association for many years at my own expense, and have no wish to be paid now for such work. At the same time I am obliged for the courtesy and good feeling expressed in connection with the vote.

I am, sir,

Your obt. servt.,

D. TORRANCE FRASER.
