Glowing Accounts of Strength and Condition of British Army Increase Enthusiasm and Confidence of People

London, April 22, 9:45 p. m.—Glowing accounts of the strength and condition of the British army and of the extent in the output of munitions, which it is expected, will next month amount to twenty-five times what it was last September, given by David Lloyd George, Chancellor of the exchequer, and Field-Marshal J. T. Tennant, parliamentary secretary of the war office, in the house of commons, have increased the enthusiasm and confidence of the people of England in the war which they and their allies are waging on the continents of Europe, Asia and Africa.

Supplementing the statement of the Chancellor that Great Britain has more than thirty-six divisions of troops on the continent, and that the output of munitions has been enormously increased, Mr. Tennant today, speaking on behalf of the secretary for war, Lord Kitchener, declared that recruiting had been most satisfactory and gratifying; that the health of the troops was splendid and that the wounded were in the London hospitals 24 hours after they were stricken in France. He wished to impress upon the country the necessity of increasing the supplies of artillery ammunition, adding: "There is no limit to the amount required."

Could Hardly Straighten Up For The Pain In Her Back.

Many women suffer from an excruciating pain in the back. They are not even able to look after the common duties of their household, and cannot even walk at times.

The whole trouble is that the kidneys have become affected, and when the kidneys get "out of order" the whole system becomes deranged. On the first sign of a weak, lame, aching back you should not neglect it, for if you do you may be sure that some serious kidney trouble will follow.

What you want is a kidney medicine, for kidneys only. This you will find in Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's Kidney Pills know nothing but kidney disorders, because they're made for kidneys only.

Mrs. George Craigie, Rose Valley, P.E.I., writes: "I am writing to tell you what a wonderful cure Doan's Kidney Pills did for me. I was suffering with a lame back, and for several days I could hardly straighten up for the pain. I had used quite a lot of other kind of pills, but received no relief. Just then my sister told me about what 'Doan's' had done for her, so I decided to try them. I used three boxes and I am completely cured. I do not hesitate to recommend them to all."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c a box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering direct specify "Doan's"

PATRIOTIC WORDS OF CANADIAN WOMEN

Sent Message to International Congress at Amsterdam That Germany Must Be Crushed Before There is Any Hope of Lasting Peace.

Toronto, April 22.—"When Germany has learned that right is stronger than might, when the mailed fist no longer threatens Europe, then may we hope for peace which our children's children may inherit. And with such a peace we may have peace, unbroken, the great traditions of our empire—honour, unshaken, liberty, safeguarded, justice vindicated."

This, enclosed in a letter, is the concluding paragraph of a message from Women at The Hague, addressed to Miss Jane Addams at Amsterdam. It bore the signature of Mrs. Adelaide M. Plumptre, signing on behalf of the Canadian national committee of women for patriotic service.

The message said in part:

"When we look at Belgium we cannot speak of peace. We are also horror of horrors of war, but there are also horrors of peace. In war there is material and physical loss, but what of the spiritual loss involved in a peaceful acquiescence in the devastation of an unoffending country whose sole crime was her geographical position."

WHAT WILL BORDEN DO?

(Monetary Times.)

What will Sir Robert Borden do about the war contract scandals? The political whitewash brush will not satisfy the Canadian citizen. He is willing to be taxed for his share of the burden of the war. He objects to being taxed to purchase for middlemen feather beds for life. The cause of war justly demands his mite. The crimes of bribery, corruption, thieving, extravagance and carelessness in connection with the purchase of Canada's war supplies, demands immediate action by Canada's premier. Once was he dubbed Robert, the Unready.

The Toronto World, in the blunt fashion, says that Sir Robert Borden has got to move quicker and make up his mind with more alacrity or he will find himself in the dump. The country will still at inaction before anything else.

That is true. The people of Canada do not want cut-and-dried majority reports of investigating committees, with minority reports trailing behind. They do not want Royal Commission reports. They want to know now what Canada's premier is going to do about it, now.

French Capture Strongly Fortified German Position

Hand to Hand Fight With Fixed Bayonets Follows Three Days Artillery Duel—Six German Companies Annihilated

Paris, April 22, 6:45 p. m.—An official eye-witness, describing the operations by which the French are menacing the German positions in the wedge of St. Mihiel, says:

"All the Allied woods, which constituted a strong and well fortified support for the Germans, is now entirely in French hands, conquered, for the most part, by troops from the centre of France, after several days of systematic preparations by a heavy fire from three-inch and big guns and by aerial torpedoes."

"At certain points the Germans had constructed in front of their trenches, twelve yards wide, spiked barriers extending about six feet above the level of the earth, surrounded by barbed wire entanglements which were so intricate as to make them imperative to any tools."

"A concentration of artillery fire opened large breaches in this defense; parapets were sent crashing to the ground, and dismembered bodies were blown into the air above the clouds of smoke. The earth was strewn with overturned trees and branches."

"After four hours intense fire, five mines, laid under a parapet adjacent to the principal fort holding the position, exploded, annihilating the garrison and spreading panic in the trenches."

"An attack with fixed bayonets then began in three lines, preceded by a detachment with hand grenades. Engineers followed with little bridges which had been prepared in advance to facilitate the passage over the network of trenches. The order had been given not to stop in any trench, but to pass over and take the enemy in the rear."

Germans Perished.

"Three lines of trenches were thus cleared of the Germans. Those who sought refuge in the underground shelters perished from suffocation, through the collapse of the entire earthworks."

"Towards 8 o'clock on April 8 the enemy attempted to counter-attack supported by a heavy artillery fire, which was neutralized by our batteries. Our attack was renewed the following day, and developed into a furious hand-to-hand struggle with grenades and bayonets in the narrow lines of trenches."

The enemy opposed with such resistance that the order was given to evacuate part of the ground that had been gained. This was then bombarded until the enemy was obliged to retire. We then held the three main line trenches of the Allied woods."

"The enemy's losses were heavy. We counted two hundred dead on the evening of the 8th, and on the evening of the 9th we found the dead piled in three rows."

"During the 7th and 8th, we repulsed eight counter-attacks. The enemy succeeded in entering one trench, but was unable to hold it. Of the Allied woods there remained nothing but a few hacked trunks, an not and inch of ground in it that had not been turned up by explosives. In the strange chaos, stones, corpses and a debris of limbs lay mingled."

THE DIFFERENCE.

Shadows have bullied the children to go to bed.

Ah, it's a wonderful sight! Father and mother have lifted to peep.

Going the rounds for the night.

Mother says: "Billy has thrown off the clothes."

See how the covers have pulled from his toes."

Father says: "Gosh, that's a capable sleeper!"

Ah, it's a wonderful sight!

Jimmy throws one arm out over the sheet.

Ah, it's a wonderful sight!

He is lax from his head to his feet. Sleeping with all of his might.

Mother says: "My, but his color is fine!"

Father says: "Wonder what this boy of mine will do in the world" (his eyes all aflutter).

Ah, it's a wonderful sight!

Father goes down to his paper and reads.

And it's a wonderful sight.

Face all aglow with his own future deeds.

Conquers both, in the fight.

Mother turns back from the top of the stairs.

Kneels for a moment and whispers a prayer.

Ah, it's a wonderful sight!

"I think that women ought to have the ballot."

"Do they really want it?"

"They must want it. Some of them are working so extensively for suffrage that they are paying absolutely no attention to dress."

A Food That Relieves Constipation

If you suffer with constipation, or fermentation of food, ask your doctor if a food containing 85 per cent deodorized Flaxseed, 80 per cent Whole Berries of Wheat, 85 per cent Whole Berries of Rye and 10 per cent Bran wouldn't help you. This is the formula of Dr. Jackson's "Roman Meal," the most nourishing food sold, which aids digestion and positively prevents constipation.

"Roman Meal," besides making a most inviting breakfast porridge, is equally good for making puddings, cakes and all baked products. At all grocers, 50c a large package.

If Sir Robert Borden has risen, and made for himself a firm place, in the opinion of the business men, as he undoubtedly has, by the strong stand he has taken in this matter, his colleague, Hon. Robert Rogers, has weakened his position by his carefully-prepared speech on the reasons and necessity for a general election.
