The Man In The Street

Welcome, June!

The wedding bells have started. But the dinner bells at Courtenay Bay have stopped.

The Russians have done something else in a bid for popular favor—they've located a pronounceable battle-ground—Sai!

Remember the Belgians—Self-Denial day tomorrow.

How Did He Travel?

Personal columns today's Standard: How did he travel in the city yesterday? Did he register?

"We don't go beyond Potts Junction," is the way a street railway motorman announced it to a passenger the other day.

Roumanie is adjusting the "manic" part properly, and will likely be the next to plunge.

"The Little Bit"

O'Leary, V. C. isn't dead, today's press cables say, but probably Germans in the trenches opposite him have been washing that his obituary notice had been correct.

Question of the hour—"Goons have a holiday tomorrow?"

Bank clerks and government employees are about all who can truthfully answer "yes."

Any Kind of Weather For Him.

News note—"Such weather for the opening of June is all that a bride could desire." As usual, there is no consideration for the welfare of the groom. But maybe the bride had been reading a suffrage pamphlet.

Overboard in Princess Street.

Conductor to irate passenger—"You'll have to transfer here, sir—the streets are torn up, and we can't go any further."

Passenger—"Well, if I must I must, but shridinshril! I'll if I like it."

A tip to the moral and social reformist—"Keep the children away from Princess street when the passengers are transferring, unless you wish to advance their knowledge of profanity."

That popular spot known as "the hotel" is now occupied by the United States and Roumanian warships. Bulgaria also seeking accommodation; some of them are liable to be crowded over into the war zone before long.

It is reported that the question of church union will be laid over for a period; another cessation of hostilities on account of the greater war.

"United we stand, divided we fall," as the city commissioners murmured while deciding to adjourn the council until the absentee could be present to take his share in the responsibility of dealing with the street railway matter.

Some one remarks that the United States need not fear the activities of Germans within their borders if war is declared; just close down the breweries and they would all be of "thirst," is the naive suggestion.

The men of the 98th have proved already their right to the title of heroes. Any man, not accustomed to sea bathing, who took a plunge in the waters of the Bay of Fundy yesterday deserves a medal.

DR. S. ALWARD ADDRESSES TRIANGLE CLUB IN FAIRVILLE

Last evening the Triangle Club held open session in the vestry of the Fairville Baptist church, the last meeting of the season. Ladies of the various church organizations were present besides other guests.

The president, H. P. Allingham, was in the chair, and opened the proceedings with a bright address on the aims and work of the club, alluding to the winter programme so successfully carried out, and predicting a very promising future.

Mrs. Murray Long then delighted all with a vocal selection, and was followed by the chief speaker of the evening, Dr. Silas Alward, on "Great Charters of English Freedom." Reference was made to the outstanding writers of the history of the British people, and a hearty vote of thanks was extended the speaker at the close of his excellent address.

Speeches were made by Rev. W. Townshend of St. Columba's, president of the church and Stephen H. Shaw, president of the Fairville Brotherhood. Regrets were sent by Rev. W. P. Dunham and Rev. G. Earle, who were prevented from attending by previous engagements.

Mrs. Bert Huestis sang a solo, and remarks by Rev. P. R. Hayward finished the programme. Refreshments were served and the gathering dispersed with warmest regards for the Triangle Club, whose members had proved such admirable hosts.

GEORGE RAYNES DEAD

George Raynes of Fairville died early this morning at his home, 98 Church Avenue, Fairville, aged sixty-seven years. Some twenty years ago he was a lime manufacturer at Green Head, and later a road commissioner in Lancaster. He was widely known, and many old friends will learn with regret of his death.

Besides his wife he leaves one daughter, Gertrude, and three sons, Edgar, George and Charles, all of Fairville; and two sisters, Mrs. T. Sullivan, of St. John, and Mrs. E. J. Christie of Victoria, B. C. The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon, with service at the house at two o'clock, after which there will be a service at the Church of the Good Shepherd.

SELF DENIAL

If any persons have not received Self Denial boxes for the Belgians tomorrow, and will telephone or call this afternoon or evening at the Patriotic Fund rooms, Prince William street, they will be gladly supplied. The boxes have been distributed in the city, Fairville, Westfield, Woodman's Point and Rotherby. Views showing the Belgian refugees will be shown at the movies, and the Boy Scouts tomorrow will carry banners. It is hoped the response will be worthy of the cause.

TWO MORE SAINT JOIN MEN WOUNDED

Howard McMahon and William McInerney Are Reported

EDWARD SPEIGHT IS PRISONER

Card Comes to Sister — Young McMahon is Only 18 Years Old — Private Appleby, a St. John Soldier, Ill — Hampton Man Wounded

A telegram received this morning by J. H. McMahon of 44 Mill street, from Ottawa informs him that his son, Howard, had been wounded while fighting with the infantry in France. He was with the 10th Battalion, having transferred to that unit from the 13th with which he left St. John last fall, because of the possibility of seeing quicker action.

The telegram was signed by the adjutant general and said that fuller particulars would be sent later. Besides his father, young McMahon, who was one of the most youthful of St. John's representatives on the firing line, being but eighteen years of age, has an anxious mother at home waiting for further news of her boy, as well as three brothers, Harry, William and Harold, and two sisters, Annie, May and Margaret. It is hoped his wounds will not prove serious.

Arthur Seely, son of Coun. E. H. Seely, Lower Newton, and grandson of T. Carleton Olive, of West St. John, has been wounded. The news was received this morning. No particulars are given, but the wound is not described as serious. Seely was in a bank in Manitoba when war broke out and enlisted in Winnipeg. Lately he was transferred to the 10th Battalion. His brother, Lance Corporal Leon Seely, is with the 99th Battalion. The latter is six feet two, and both brothers are crack shots. All his friends hope soon to hear that Seely has recovered.

Wm. McInerney, Also

F. J. McInerney, Mill street, received the following telegram from Ottawa this morning:

"Sincerely regret to inform you that Wm. McInerney, 12th Battalion, formerly reported wounded."

ADT-GENERAL

Private McInerney is a native of Hampton, but enlisted in the west, where he had gone four years ago, and was engaged as a housemaid at the time. He wrote to his brother, F. J. McInerney, when he enlisted, and this is the first news received since. He is a son of the late Edward McInerney of Hampton, and has many friends there and in St. John, who will hope for his speedy recovery.

Edward Speight a Prisoner.

Miss J. Speight, 622 Main street, received the following card this morning from her brother, Edward Speight, dated May 10—

"Am a prisoner of war. Am well. Letter follows. Send parcel. Address: 14418 Prisoner of War, Camp Meschede, Germany."

Came Through Safely

A letter received yesterday by Thomas McMenamin of Spar Cove road, from his son, Corporal Louis McMenamin with the Signal Corps in France, says that he has come safely through the recent heavy fighting. He writes of the German gas which he saw produce terrible effects, and adds that if it were not for the gas they would never take a trench with the bayonet. Corporal McMenamin refers to the illness of Private Appleby of this city saying he had been sent to the base, but did not think his illness was serious.

FOR TOTAL ABSTINENCE WHILE THE WAR LASTS

Rural Deacons Members to Seek Pledges From Church Members

At a meeting of the St. John Rural Deacons yesterday in the church of the Good Shepherd, Fairville, all the members of the deacons were present except Rev. Messrs. Jenkins and Jarvis. Many matters of interest were transacted. Holy communion was celebrated at 9.30 a. m. by Rev. Rural Dean Sampson, celebrant, and Rev. W. P. Dunham assisting.

Following the office, matters of interest pertaining to the church were discussed, and it was decided that every parish make an effort to obtain total abstinence pledges during the war from its respective members. The deacons adjourned to meet at Westfield in August. An enjoyable luncheon was served by Rev. Mr. Dunham and Mrs. Dunham, with the clergyman as their guests.

BOWLERS KEEP UP HIGH SCORING

On the Vic alleys the single string competition is still drawing a large number of contestants and keen competition is always seen when the bowlers get together. There are five prizes given away each day.

On Monday Coughlan succeeded by winning two prizes. His 125 and 129 were the two highest during the day. Gamblin with 114, Riley with 118, and Cosgrove with 113 were the other prize winners. Tuesday's results were as follows—H. Mays, 120; T. Cosgrove, 112; Coughlan, 119; Riley, 119; B. Stevens, 119.

All prizes given away in the single string competition are valued at $1 or more, and the bowlers are certainly trying hard to outdo each other. Much interest is displayed in this contest, and many high scores are placed as a result.

A special betting match, S. H. Mays defeated Jas. Steen by 87 pins. Mays' scores were 120, 96, 91, 307; Steen's were 92, 89, 89, 279.

A GOOD WORK

The Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis has had ten thousand leaflets printed for distribution, giving salient facts about the disease and its home-treatment. Of these five thousand will be distributed through the schools. In every city where an effort is made to combat tuberculosis this method of reaching the people is adopted.
